FASHION

The front-piece of "Fashion" for June is a strikingly artistic page, showing a stylish riding habit and a practical as well as beautiful mountain costume. The gowns pictured throughout the number are all especially seasonable, and include a Redfern yachting costume, commencement dresses, a tennis suit, various kinds of negligee and fluffy dresses of summer goods for all sorts of occasions.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe contributes the opening article, which is accompanied by a fine recent portrait of the author. A brief description of the new Congressional Library and latest notes on women's work at the Tennessee Centennial are of interest. Students of Flower lore will be delighted with Isabel Worrell Fall's dainty study of "The Flower of June," while every true woman will heartily endorse the sentiment in Florence Howe Hall's treatment of the subject "Courtesy to Our Social Inferiors."

"The Meeting of the Waters" is a charming story of Southern life by Joaquin H. Wadworth; and "What Was in a Name" is a clever skit by Alice Wellington Rollins.

Large space is devoted to articles suggesting summer occupations, games and flower culture. "The Etiquette of Weddings" will settle many a vexed question. Embroidery is seasonable all the year round, and three Colonial designs are given to tempt deft fingers to copy them in the leisure hours of summer. The latest novelties in millinery, shoe, parasols, pocketbooks, belt bags, etc., are described, and nothing has been neglected to give "Fashion" readers thoroughly up-to-date information in all matters of feminine accessories.

FOSTER FURNITURE COMPANY.

Time Tried,

Time proves the worth of everything. It is the test of honesty. It wears off the exterior and exposes the solidity or the worthlessness beneath. There is nothing more susceptible to time than a piano. One which has stood the test of time—which has stood well in tone, which keeps its perfect action and elastic touch—is as good as any we can offer you. But beware of judging lustily. Most pianos sound alike when they are new. We will be glad to help anyone to piano wisdom who cares to learn.

MURDER MOST FOUL.

Catholic Monks Roasted on the Phillipine Islands.

The Rebels Burned Them in Revenge for Cruelties Practiced by the Spanish on Friends of the Rebel Cause.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 8.—Further interviews with officers of the steamer Hupehe, now in port, elicit the fact that twenty-five Catholic monks were roasted by the rebels in the Philippine Islands, and not by Spanish troops. The information was furnished by a prominent resident of Ilo-Ilo, in the group of islands and corroborated by a foreign consul. In consequence of cruelties practiced by the Spanish troops on the rebels or those suspected of being in sympathy with the rebel cause, the rebels in revenge perpetrated acts of cruelty on the hapless monks who came in their clutches. The customary mode of roasting sucking pigs in the island is by thrusting a bamboo through the pig and then fastening it to an iron and roasting it over a slow fire. This was done to the monks, the bamboo being thrust through them while they were alive.

Previous to the voyage to this port the Hupuhe made a trip from Hong Kong to Ilo-Ilo, and it was just previous to this voyage that the acts reported occurred near Manila.

WAR WITH JAPAN?

A London Paper Says America May be too Willing.

The Japanese May Land an Armed Force on the Hawaiian Islands at Almost Any Time.

LONDON, June 8.—The St. James Gazette this afternoon, commenting upon the dispute between Japan and Hawaii, which is described as a "corrupt little republic run by a handfull of American filibusters," says: "As Hawaii has no resisting power, the question arises, will the United States government see its protege through its trouble? The Japanese may land an armed party at any moment. Then what will the Philadelphia do? Japan, since she smashed the Chinese, is believed to be spoiling for a fight with a white power, and she may find America ready to oblige her sooner than she expects."

MURDER IS SUSPECTED.

Mysterious Death of a Farmer Near Terre Haute.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 8.—The coroner is in doubt as to the cause of the death of a man, supposed to be James Butts, a well-to-do farmer, living east of town. Near "Twelve Points," a sort of roadhouse north of town, a street car ran over a man late last night. The head was on one rail, the feet on the other, and when the wheels struck the body, the top of the head was cut off, the brain being scattered along the track. A bottle of whisky was found on the dead man's body. A week ago at the same place a rotten tie was placed on the track, derailing a double-deck car. The position of the body leads to the belief that the man may have been murdered and his body placed across the track.

HIS ASHES HELD FOR DEBT.

Sensational Development in the Trial of the Davis Will Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 8.—A sensation was sprung by counsel for the contestants in the Davis will case when it was shown that the ashes of the deceased millionaire, over whose property his heirs are now wrangling, are being held by Undertaker Schuyler of Philadelphia as security for the sum of $800, the value of the casket in which the remains reposed before being cremated, as well as for the process of embalming. It is contended by the other side, however, that the ashes only remain in the custody of the undertaker because no one has any authority to take charge of them.

When asked if he would appoint delegates from the state-at-large, Governor Jones said: "I intend to ignore this convention altogether, and shall decline to appoint delegates to it. There is no silver in it, and I am opposed to anything of this kind that seems inimical to the interests of bimetallism."

THE DURRANT CASE.

He May Hang After all if the Governor Does Not Interfere.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The peculiar status of the Durrant case is exciting an unusual amount of public comments. Since the postponement of Worden's execution the opinion is generally expressed that Durrant will not hang on Friday next. Attorney General Fitzgerald, however says that unless officially notified or restrained Warden Hale stands ready to carry out the sentence. It is generally believed among the legal fraternity that pending the action of the United States supreme court, Governor Budd will grant a reprieve.

LIKE MURDER.

Isaac Hoffman's Death Not a Case of Suicide.

His Bookkeeper, Theodore Figel, is Charged With the Crime--The Deed Inspired by Fear of Arrest.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—A sensational arraignment of Theodore Figel, book keeper for Isaac Hoffman, has been made by Attorney Henry Ach, speaking for the partners of the dead merchant, who he declares was deliberately murdered. This statement was made in the presence of H. M. Rothchild and Joseph Naptaly, counsel for Mrs. Hoffman. It reviews details of the case and is a strong argument against the theory of suicide. When questioned directly as to whether the books would come out right under expert examination Figel frankly admitted that they would not, as he had made false entries in the bank account in the firm's ledger at Hoffman's suggestion to cover up drafts made in excess of his allowance. Figel further said that no one but himself could make the books balance, as many entries had to be made of which he alone knew. In his racing affairs Figel employed Edgar L. Atkinson, C. Burlingame, and William Taylor as agents. They managed the stable and bet at his direction. They claim that Figel was a heavy winner but admit that they have wagered $1,000 on a single race for their principal.

At the end of the first hour Farnsworth, Glaw, Mack and Brown, in the order named, had gone twenty miles, breaking the world's record of nineteen miles, ten laps, for the first hour of a twelve hour race outdoors, made a year ago by Farnsworth at Winnipeg. In a mix up just as the riding was stopped Glaw, Mack and Harp received severe bruises and their wheels were wrecked.

THE U. S. COURT.

Meets and Completes Business in One and One-Half Hours.

Marriage Contract Annulled by Judge Dawson--Divorce Case--Court News.

The United States court convened in this city this morning, with Judge Baker on the bench. Clerk Noble C. Butler, District Attorney A. W. Wishard and United States Marshall Sam Kercheval were present. A jury has been subpoenaed, but there was no business for them and they were discharged. James Kelly was discharged as predicted in THE SENTINEL a few days ago. The most important case was that of Kaiser, Beck & Co., of Bremen, Germany vs. the Centlivre Brewing company, asking for an order restraining the Centlivres from using the label Kaiser on their beer. The case was settled by agreement, defendants dropping the name and the plaintiffs not asking any damages in consideration thereof. Judge Baker approved the agreement and it was entered on the record. In about one and one half hours after court convened the docket was cleared, and adjournment taken. All officers returned to Indianapolis this afternoon.

HAD ANOTHER WIFE.

In the superior court this morning Judge Dawson annulled the marriage of Laverne Bowlar and Edwin Bowlar alias Edwin Bowley. The plaintiff alleged that they were married in January, 1896, and at that time defendant had a wife living in Providence, Rhode Island, and another living in England. He was a machinist employed at the Wayne Knitting mills. After hearing the evidence Judge Dawson decided that inasmuch as the marriage had been procured by fraud it was null and void and he restored the woman to her maiden name, Laverne Brooks Kimball.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

Two Couples Well Known in This City Are Married at Wellsville, Ohio.

Mrs. Aurelia Olinger has returned from Wellsville, Ohio, where she attended the double wedding of two couples who are her intimate friends and who have frequently visited in this city.

The church of the Immaculate Conception was tastily decorated with bridal white, with a profusion of ferns and ivy about the altar, with a passage from the carriage to the altar laid and lined with white. Promptly at 9 o'clock the wedding party and attendants entered in the following order: The first bride, Miss Anna Martin, leaning on the arm of her brother, E. S. Martin, followed by the prospective groom and bridesmaid, Miss Mary Cleherty, cousin of the bride. Then came the second bride, Miss Mary Martin, attended by Mr. James Wheatley, brother of the groom, followed by the groom and Miss Lizzie Martin, youngest sister of the two brides. The brides were costumed in lovely gowns of white organdie, over white corded silk, with rich trimmings of cream silk lace, and white satin ribbon, with white kid gloves and slippers to match. Their beautiful bridal veils were held to place with clusters of swansonia, and they carried mermet roses. The bridesmaids were handsomely costumed in white organdie over corded silk, Miss Cleherty wearing pink, and Miss Martin wearing lavender, with white kid gloves to their elbows, and white kid slippers to match. A six-course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the brides' parents, 1230 Commerce street, by Caterer Bunting and colored waiters. J. P. Buck and bride left on the afternoon train for his country home, at Mineral Point, Ohio, where they will spend a few days, but will receive their friends, after the 15th, at their cozy home on Sixth street. Meeting of the Supreme Lodge Officers

With Delegates From Grand and Subordinate Lodges in Every State, Territory and Province.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 8.—The twenty-fifth stated meeting of the supreme lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of the United States and Canada opened in Milwaukee today with the supreme officers and members of standing committees as well as about 150 delegates present. The sessions, which are held in the lodge hall of the University building will continue for a week or ten days. It is understood there is an unusually large amount of legislative work in hand, including final action upon a move made by the grand lodge of the order in Ontario to secede from the supreme body and doing away with all name and reference to the supreme lodge, conduct a grand lodge of its own in the dominion, independent of the order in the "states." This, it is claimed by the supreme officers, would be tantamount to open rebellion, and strong efforts are being made to avoid such questions. Action upon the matter was postponed by the grand body in Canada until the matter could fully be heard before the supreme body in its Milwaukee session at this time.

A CHAINLESS WHEEL

Has Been Invented in Indianapolis--How It Works.

A new bicycle, which, its inventor claims, will revolutionize the business and be to the wheel traveling what the pneumatic sulky was to harness racing, will make its appearance on the streets of Indianapolis tomorrow. It is a chainless wheel and its inventor claims for it a saving of 50 per cent. in power or 50 per cent. more speed with the same power.

The wheel was invented by Milton T. Campbell of that city, who has associated with him J. D. Hoss. The first wheel is being made at the shops of the Globe machine works. It is now about completed and will be put together this evening ready for a trial tomorrow.

Instead of the chain and sprocket wheel the wheel is propelled by means of a rack bar connecting the pedals with the rear hub. The hub is connected to the rack bar by means of rack rings and a ratchet motion. The rack bar has teeth on both the upper and lower side so that there is a division of the strain; backward power on the lower side and forward on the upper side, thus dividing the strain. On the sprocket wheel it is all on one side.

The gearing can be changed in a few seconds by the arrangement of a screw and ranges from sixty-two to ninety-six. When the wheel is geared at ninety-six with the rack bar the force necessary to propel it is the same as on a sprocket-wheel machine with a gear of fifty-eight, so that with the same force 50 per cent. additional speed is secured. The outcome of the trial tomorrow will be watched with interest by wheelmen everywhere.

Seymour Payne, an employe of the east car barn, fell from a ladder and was painfully bruised today.

Miss Chaska went to Lafayette today to visit friends. She will be absent two weeks.

HE WILL RESIGN.

Hon. T. E. Ellison Has Decided to Soon Retire

From the Board of Directors of the Jeffersonville Reformatory--Too Far Away.

A SENTINEL reporter called on Hon. Thomas E. Ellison and inquired into the truth of the statement that he would retire from the board of directors of the Jeffersonville reformatory and was informed that in a month or six weeks, as soon as some repairs were completed, he would resign and had so notified Governor Mount. Mr. Ellison did much to secure the passage of the law authorizing the reformatory and it is the governor's desire that he remain on the board. Mr. Ellison, however, finds that he cannot spare the time to attend to the affairs of membership on the board. The institution is too far from his home. He is enthusiastic in the good work that he believes can be done through the reformatory.

STREET SUPERINTENDENT.

Frank Weber Succeeded to the Position by Henry C. Franke---Change Made Today.

Frank Weber, who has held the position of superintendent of streets during the present administration, has resigned and the board of works has appointed Henry C. Franke to succeed him. Mr. Weber will engage in some other occupation in a few weeks. Mr. Franke, who was for some years city marshal, under the old charter, is a reliable tireless worker in whatever he undertakes and he will no doubt prove to be a capable and popular official. Mr. Franke has been engaged in the plumbing business with his son, and this interest he will not relinquish although he will give no active attention to the business. He assumed his duties today.

OTHER BUSINESS.

The board of works has awarded to the Peters Box and Lumber company the contract to furnish the city with oak lumber for one year at $14.45 per thousand at the mills. Killian Baker offered to furnish white oak for $15.20.

A petition was received and filed for the opening of an alley between Gay and John streets from Pontiac to Creighton avenue. The engineer was ordered to prepare plans for the work.

The following bonds were approved by the board for parties who have been granted permission to lay brick walks by private contracts: Louis Arion for a walk at lot 207 Hanna's addition; Fred S. Tyler for walk at lots 48 and 49 Rockhill's addition.

Jaap and Swartzkopf were given a permit to relay a brick walk in front of lots 2 and 3 Ewing's addition.

The contractors of the tunnel were before the board again and asked for a permit. They were told that the desired permission would be given Wednesday if all the requirements of the city were fulfilled.

The bride and groom were attended by the bride's brother, Frank, and the groom's sister, Emma. The bride and bridesmaid were beautifully attired in white organdie and carried bridal roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Danneker. After the wedding an elegant dinner was enjoyed, only the immediate relatives being present. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Grand Rapids and the north, and on their return will be at home to their many friends at 82 West Fourth street.

A CONVENTION.

Sunday School Workers Have a Meeting in Madison Township.

The Sunday schools of Madison township met in convention at Massillon, June 5 and 6. A high degree of interest was manifested every session was largely attended, the house being crowded and some were compelled to stay on the out side. A number of zealous Sunday school workers from a distance were present. Everybody was enthusiastic and made themselves at home. This is the feeling manifested and not the bitter contention that sometimes exists between schools.

GEORGE W. ELY.

A Prominent Citizen Crosses the River of Death.

Was Well Known as a Business Man and Served His Constituents Faithfully in the City Council.

Although the friends of ex-Councilman George W Ely knew that he had been ill several days they were not familiar with the nature of his malady and took it to be a mere temporary attack. The news of his death at an early hour this morning was therefore a shock to nearly everybody who heard it. His last illness dated from only a week ago, although he had been troubled for years with catarrh of the stomach and bowels, the chronic complaint which eventually closed his career. Death came to him at 5 o'clock this morning.

George Walter Ely was born at Owego, Tioga county, N. Y., June 22, 1837, and had he lived he would have reached his sixtieth anniversary this month. He came here in 1863, in April of which year he married Therese Anderson, a daughter of the late Calvin Anderson. He was for some years after his arrival engaged with his father-in-law in the grocery business. After that time he was interested in several enterprises, the latest one being that of the grocery business of Ely & Dittoe, from which he retired only a few years ago. Mr. Ely served as councilman from the Third ward several terms, being first elected in 1884. He made a careful and faithful officer. Owing to his affliction he had not been active lately in business affairs, but he kept up with a courage born of strong will power, until last Tuesday when he was obliged to take to the bed. His decline was steadily persistent from that time until the end.

All those fortunate enough to have had the acquaintance of Mr. Ely numbered him among their best friends and esteemed him for his noble traits of character and generous qualities. By his death a good citizen is lost to the community and a good friend to many individuals. The widow, alone, survives him in the immediate family, there being no children.

The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence, corner of Berry and Lafayette streets, Rev. D. W. Moffat officiating.

A RUSTY NAIL.

Penetrates the Foot of Mrs. Mary Rauner.

Professor Oelke the Victim of Boy's Carelessness--Struck in the Eye by a Ball--Andrew Felsheser Injured.

Mrs. Mary Rauner, of Taylor street, stepped on a rusty nail a few days ago and the injury has grown so serious that the lady cannot walk. The wound is badly inflamed, causing constant pain. If it continues to grow worse lock jaw is apt to set in.

OTHER ACCIDENTS.

Adolph Oelke, a teacher in the St. John's Lutheran schools, met with an accident last evening that may seriously impair his sight. He was standing in his yard, just east of the school, talking with another teacher, Jacob Stumpf, when a ball, thrown by a lad who was playing with companions in the street, struck him in the face. Mr. Oelke's eye glasses were shattered, one of the pieces cutting the eye ball. Dr. Wheelock was summoned to attend the injury. While the injury is extremely serious by reason of the delicate nature of the organ affected, it is thought that careful treatment will save the sight.

Andrew Felsheiser, a conductor on the street railway, fell from his car at the curve near Eckart's packing house last evening, and received severe bruises which will keep him from work for some time.

John Steger, an employe at the Koehler brick yard, fell from a lime kiln and sprained his arm yesterday afternoon.

WE regret to announce that summer has been unavoidably postponed on account of the weather.

EXPERTS say that mental dwarfs are more common than physical ones. These attacks on congress ought to be stopped.

OUT in Arkansas a law has been passed taxing airships. Possibly the idea is, that as taxes increase prices, they may go up.

A KENTUCKY paper says the lynching in Ohio was badly managed, and there can be no offense in remarking that this is expert testimony.

CUBA is costing Spain $11,000,000 a month, while the revenue from the island is less than $1,000,000 a month. It is a settled fact that Spain is not a nation of merchants.

MR. MORSE, the late consul-general to Paris, says in an interview that the consular system should be improved and expresses the belief that representatives should be chosen for fitness and character and not on political grounds.

IN ancient times the expression, "he has gone over to the majority," meant that a man had died. In these days it applies with excellent force to those who ride the bicycle.

THE non-partisan judicial ticket won in Chicago Monday by a plurality of 15,000 in a total vote of 145,000. The ticket was composed of six democrats and eight republicans and was opposed by a ticket nominated by the democratic machine. Politics is being rapidly eliminated from judicial elections.

A GENTLEMAN close to President McKinley says that John Russell Young, of Philadelphia, minister to China under President Harrison, is to be appointed librarian of congress to succeed Ainsworth R. Spofford, whose term expires next month. It is said that Mr. McKinley has never given Mr. Spofford's application for reappointment serious consideration.

CONGRESSMAN PAUL J. SORG yesterday officially announced his candidacy for United States senator from Ohio in the event that the democrats secure a majority of the members of the legislature to be elected next November. While other names have been mentioned, the only other announced candidate is John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

IN habeas corpus proceedings filed, Judge Gibson, of the Jeffersonville circuit court, held that the indeterminate sentence law is unconstitutional, and, as the Indiana Reformatory is within his jurisdiction, it is claimed that were habeas corpus instituted in his court it might result in the release of every prisoner in the reformatory. Several judges throughout the state have given similar rulings. As a matter of public good, however, although opposed to the law, Judge Gibson feels it to be his duty to uphold it until the supreme court has made a final decision thereon, and this will be done.

CONGRESSMAN HENRY U. JOHNSON, of this state, enjoys the distinction of being the swiftest talker in the house of representatives. Next to him comes Congressman Lewis, of the state of Washington. Johnson's average is 240 words to the minute. The congressmen from the Richmond district is a nervous sort of an individual, radical in his views, excitable in debate, and decidedly aggressive. He is in poor health.

A WISE and witty woman once remarked that there were three supreme follies of men that always both puzzled and amused her. The first was to climb trees to shake fruit down, when if they would wait long enough the fruit would fall down itself. The second was going to war to kill each other, when if they would only wait they would die natural deaths. The third is that they should run after women when, if they did not do so, the women would run after them.

An Example of Bad Faith.

It is feared that the proposition to impose a duty on tea and increase the tax on beer will be defeated in the senate. It is said that the president is opposed to both because they would convey the idea that the bill reported by the finance committee was more for the purpose of producing revenue than for protecting American industries.

It may well be believed that the National Brewers' association will bring a strong influence to bear upon the defeat of the beer tax and that the republican leaders will not be indifferent to the wishes of that powerful combination. It would not be accounted good politics to incur the displeasure of an organization which practically controls the saloon vote of the country. But with the president the chief purpose seems to be to emphasize the protective features of the new tariff act and to carry out the doctrine to which he has been devoted throughout the period of his public career.

With the influence the administration directed in this channel, it is doubtful whether the keynote of Mr. Aldrich in the senate will prevent an increase of tariff upon many commodities which the republicans are bound by every requirement of honor to keep down to the present rate of taxation. This policy was foreshadowed by John Sherman when he made his opening speech in the McKinley canvass, and Mr. Bryan would certainly have been elected had the sound money democrats who supported McKinley dreamed that the present congress would so far forget the pledges of the republican leaders in the last campaign as to attempt to make the advance in tariff schedules which is now favored by the ruling party in the house and senate.

There is an unmistakable disposition to get back as nearly as possible to the McKinley bill and to impose upon the people an oppressive tax for the benefit of the manufacturers. The republicans may succeed in doing this, but in the end it will give to free trade the most vigorous impetus it has ever received. It will cut off from the republican party all of the support which it received last autumn from the anti-silver democrats and will leave it to reckon with the people at the next presidential election without any reasonable apology for its treachery and bad faith.—Kansas City Star.

TO ADVANCE FARMING.

Institute Held by the Agriculturists of Madison and Monroe Townships.

The farmers of Madison and Monroe townships convened in an institute June 3 in the grove near the Kronse school house, with Alexander Johnson as president and Miss Ida J. McIntosh as acting secretary.

The institute was opened with prayer by Benjamin McIntosh. They first listened to a very instructive and interesting paper on "Poultry for Profit," by Mrs. Rose Houk; discussion by Mrs. Scott, Mr. Brown and Mrs. Dell Houk. Duet, "Eggs for Breakfast, by C. Kunkle and N. Houk. The subject, "Sugar Beets for Profit in Allen County," was ably presented by U. R. Spaulding; discussed by S. Houk, Mr. Brown, Mr. Shaffer and the president.

The institute then adjourned for a good, sociable, refreshing time, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The subject, "The Cost and Profit of the Horse," was well presented by J. D. Friedline and C. Youse, followed by a very instructive paper on the subject, "Cause and Cure of Hog Cholera," by V. L. Shaffer. The subject, "Timothy Hay the Most Profitable Farm Crop," was thoroughly discussed by Messrs. Wm. Hockemeyer, Eagy, Brown and Youse. "How Best to Secure the Best Stand of Clover" was very ably presented by William Brown. "The Best Utilization of Corn Fodder" was ably shown by S. Houk. By consent, the old committe was retained, with the addition of Mrs. Rose Houk and Mrs. L. B. Scott.

INTER-STATE LEAGUE.

Dayton at Springfield.
Fort Wayne at Toledo.
Youngstown at New Castle.
Mansfield at Wheeling.

NOTES.

Wayne is able to be out on the streets, but cannot go into the box for two weeks.

Donavan is playing in the Michigan league, but would like to return to Fort Wayne. He may be sent for if a catcher is needed.

Funkhouser is playing third base for the South Bend Senators. Last Sunday, in a game against the Whitings, he made four errors in five chances, did not make a hit and fanned the air a couple of times.

New Castle News: "Pitcher Lipp was suspended for two weeks Wednesday. He was given that length of time to get into form. Lipp is all right, and, with a little practice, will twirl with the best of them."

Gus Schmelz has resigned the management of the Washington base ball club. The poor work of the senators this season caused a demand for a change, and he retired voluntarily. J. Earl Wagner will temporarily take charge of the team. A new outfielder will be engaged, and other changes will follow.

Wheeling Register: "The local management has completed arrangements to play Sunday ball at Blennerhassett island, opposite Parkersburg. Excursion trains will be run by the Ohio river road at a reduced rate and the round trip will cost, including admission to the game, $1.50—cheap traveling for 188 miles."

Dayton Times: "Manager Torreyson left Monday morning for a two or three days' trip, and it is whispered that he has gone to look for something that might be of use to him with the Dayton club. When interviewed he said he has decided that although several of the boys are in a bad condition, that there is something else wrong and he is not going to be caught napping. There is some talk of the Ohio and West Virginia league breaking up and he has most likely gone to look over the material in that league."

Dayton Times: "Up at New Castle the sporting editors are eating licorice root and drinking sarsaparilla and blowing about Hickman leading all pitchers in the Inter-State league. They say he has won six out of ten or ten out of nine, etc. Well, Dayton has a pitcher in Eli Rosebrough, who has not lost a game, and he has pitched several games, allowing the opponents from three to six hits. Eli always gets there, and still he is only a farmer and don't pose as the "only squash in the patch." Guess there's a notch or two in Mr. Rosebrough's record now.

COST OF COUNTY AFFAIRS.

A Report Gathered From Auditor's Statistics.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 8.—The following figures were compiled from the auditors of the different counties, and shows how much it cost to run county affairs during the last fiscal year, ending May 31:

Allen	$311,707 (6)
DeKalb	70,409 (6)
Elkhart	110,774 (6)
Kosciusko	111,562 (6)
Lagrange	27,535 (6)
Noble	70,598 (6)
Whitley	42,291 (6)

This, however, does not show a true comparison because of differences of population, so taking the vote cast in each county in 1896 and using that as a basis, it is found that Allen county spent approximately $11.39 for each voter, DeKalb $10.51, Elkhart $9.62, Lagrange $7.51, Noble, $7.54, Whitley $8.82, Kosciusko, $14.45. But deducting the amount paid for new county buildings in Kosciusko county, the result is $9.28.

Again taking the census of 1890 as a basis for each individual Allen county spent $3.17, DeKalb county spent $2.88, Elkhart county spent $2.82, Lagrange county spent $1.82, Noble county spent $2.16, Whitley county spent $2.47, Kosciusko spent $3.49. This is exclusive of amount paid for new buildings, $2.68.

It will be seen from this statement that Lagrange county is the most economical, and Allen the most generous.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

IN FRONT OF A LOCOMOTIVE.

An Experience That Beats Football For Making a Man Hungry.

The young engineer who has just been graduated from college is likely to remember the incidents of his first ride on a real steam engine longer than some of the lessons he took four years to learn at the university.

"I went up to New York the other day on my first engine test," said a young M. E. of Philadelphia, who is in the employ of a locomotive works. "It was a novel and interesting experience and one I very much enjoyed. But, then, a fellow could enjoy almost any old thing after working four months in the grime and dirt and grease of the shop at the munificent rate of 8 cents an hour.

"The engine we tested was made for the Jersey Central railroad to haul the Royal Blue express from New York to Washington. The engineer of tests and I rode from Philadelphia in an engine cab to Jersey City, where the engine we were to test was waiting for us in the roundhouse. It was a beauty—a great, shining iron beast, with drivers 84 inches high. It had been brought to the roundhouse the day before, and the mechanics had trued up or lined up its crosshead guides. We placed the indicators in the cylinder, coaled our engine, filled the water tank, backed into the station, hitched to our train and were all ready to start when the time came.

"The engineer of tests and I took our places on the front of the engine on the right hand side. He read the draft gauge and speed, and I sat on top of the cylinder, taking indicator cards. You haven't any idea of the breeze created by a train running at the rate of more than a mile a minute until you get out on the front end of an engine. The engine cab is a calm and sequestered retreat in comparison. It seemed to me that we were tearing the very heart out of the wind. The engine under me snorted and panted and quivered like a wild animal in a rage as it sprang forward wildly into space, shrieking shrilly half the time. The wind smote my cheeks like the blow of a sharp blade. My eyes smarted with smoke and the tears that the wind dried. But for all that it was glorious—the very apotheosis of motion. The landscape rushed past me like a frightened thing. Farms, towns, rivers, the earth, the sky, all was an indescribable blur. At times I wondered if the iron monster wasn't running away. And then I thought of the darky who said he'd rather be in a railway disaster than a steamboat smash up, for in the former case, 'Dar you is!' but in the latter, 'What is you?'

"When we reached Elizabeth, we discovered that one of our crosshead guides was getting hot. It had probably been lined up wrong. We stopped, oiled it up well and started again, but it troubled us so that we had to slow down considerably, and by the time we reached Belle Meade it was almost hot. That ended our test for that day. We took off our engine and let the train proceed with a switch engine we picked up at Belle Meade, while we backed into Jersey City. It was 7 o'clock at night by the time we had all our traps off the engine and were ready to start for home. We hadn't eaten a bite since morning. Well, I used to think after a football game that I knew what it was to be hungry and stiff, but my ride on that engine cylinder convinced me that I had previously had only the faintest conception of what hunger and weariness mean."—New York Sun.

VICTORIA'S HOUSEHOLD.

State Functions and Splendid Entertainments at Buckingham Palace.

At the court of Queen Victoria it has not been customary that the staff of maids of honor should exceed eight in number, and at that strength it has been maintained for many years past—certainly ever since her majesty was stricken by the heaviest of her many domestic bereavements. During two decades of happy married life the queen had much more frequent occasion for availing herself of the ministrations of the younger ladies of her household than she has had in the comparative seclusion of her widowhood. From 1840 to 1860 Buckingham palace was the scene of many splendid entertainments, and what with state functions, royal visits to the opera house and the principal theaters and an infinite variety of public ceremonies which her majesty was pleased to honor with her presence, the services of her maids and women of the bedchamber were in continual request. It was, of course, necessary that two of the former should always be in readiness to wait upon their royal mistress at a moment's notice, and this requirement during the season involved a daily attendance at the palace of four maids of honor, each two in their turn taking a spell of six hours' duty. These young ladies were relieved at fixed intervals, their service being performed during alternate weeks or months, in accordance with arrangements sanctioned by the queen at the instance of the mistress of the robes, and it is more than probable that, in view of illness or accident, which might at any time incapacitate the damsels of their regular establishment from fulfilling their appointed charge, supernumerary maids of honor were constantly in reserve to meet whatever unexpected emergency might occur.

Even now the name of an "extra" maid of honor figures in the list of noble damsels attached to the royal household in the department of the mistress of the robes, while it may be gathered from the same lists that there are four "extra" ladies of the bedchamber—two of them duchesses—and no fewer than nine "extra" bedchamber women, one of whom also bears the most exalted title of the British nobility. This circumstance would seem to justify the inference that the maids of honor are better able to endure the fatigue of court service than the ladies in waiting of maturer years, who evidently stand in need of numerous substitutes and frequent relief. One of the regulations prescribed to members of the household, female as well as male—to wit, that they may not sit down in the queen's presence, save at her majesty's express command—is assuredly more suitable to young girls than to elderly or even middle aged dames, such as the ladies of the bedchamber, several of whom are officially described as "dowagers" in the list above referred to. The salary drawn by British maids of honor is a small one, barely sufficient to enable them to defray the cost of their toilets, in which the nice gradations of court mourning too often figure very expensively. In all probability, however, being daughters of peers of the realm, the young ladies are liberally subventioned by their parents, and £300 a year, when all is said and done, will pay for a good deal of fashionable millinery, such as may fitly be worn by the youthful attendants of a widow queen.—London Telegraph.

GRANT'S "HAMMERING."

The Soldiers as Anxious as the General to Fight to a Finish.

General Horace Porter, in "Campaigning With Grant," in The Century, dealing with the battle of Cold Harbor, says:

There were critics who were severe in their condemnation of what Grant called "hammering" and Sherman called "pounding," but they were found principally among the stay at homes and especially the men who sympathized with the enemy. A soldier said one night when reading by a campfire an account of a call issued by a disloyal newspaper at home for a public meeting to protest against the continued bloodshed in this campaign: "Who's shedding this blood anyhow? They better wait till we fellows down here at the front holler, 'Enough!'" The soldiers were as anxious as their commander to fight the war to a finish and be allowed to return to their families and their business.

Grant could have effectually stopped the carnage at any time by withholding from battle. He could have avoided all bloodshed by remaining north of the Rapidan, intrenching and not moving against his enemy, but he was not placed in command of the armies for that purpose. It had been demonstrated by more than three years of campaigning that peace could be secured only by whipping and destroying the enemy. No one was more desirous of peace, no one was possessed of a heart more sensitive to every form of human suffering, than the commander, but he realized that paper bullets are not effective in warfare, he knew better than to attempt to hew rocks with a razor, and he felt that in campaigning the hardest blows bring the quickest relief.

He was aware that in Wellington's armies the annual loss from disease was 113 out of 1,000, in our Mexican war 152 and in the Crimea 600, and that in the campaigns thus far in our own war more men had died from sickness while lying in camp than from shot and shell in battle. He could not select his ground for fighting in this continuous siege of fortified lines, for, though he and his chief officers applied all their experience and skill in endeavors to maneuver the enemy out of strong positions before attacking him, his foe was often too able and wily to fall into the traps set for him and had to be struck in positions which were far from Grant's choosing. When Lee stopped fighting, the cause of secession was lost. If Grant had stopped fighting, the cause of the Union would have been lost. He was assigned one of the most appalling tasks ever intrusted to a commander. He did his duty fearlessly to the bitter end and triumphed. In 13 months after Lincoln handed him his commission of lieutenant general and intrusted to him the command of the armies the war was virtually ended.

Everybody Feels Happy

Seldom has the opportunity been offered to every one to enjoy all the pleasures of cycling on a high grade wheel, built by a house of unquestioned reputation, for such a trifling cost.

The Waverley Bicycle

famous last year for its sterling qualities, is now sold at a popular price. Machinery costs money. We had none to buy—hence the reduction in price.

There is another Waverley Bicycle for those who want the very best. Its bearings, constructed on an entirely new principle, are absolutely true. It cannot be sold for less than $100 to anyone.

YOUR CAR, PET!

Don't always ask your friend how his health is. It sometimes makes him tired. For a change ask him how his CARPETS are. Ask him where he got them. If he bought them from US well and good. If he bought them elsewhere don't roast him, (it's just possible they may be good,) but speak to him calmly and try to persuade him that the Indiana Furniture Co., Carpets could not be poor, or even doubtful. Is there any reason for dodging and ignoring a great and vital fact simply because a few prejudiced, misguided people have antiquated ideas of what constitutes morality and modesty? Reason and honesty say —certainly not. Men and women are attracted to each other because they are men and women and because it is right and necessary that they should be so attracted. The things that make a man attractive are the characteristics caused by his inherent manliness—by the strength which makes him a perfect man. The same is true of woman. There is strong attractiveness in perfect health. There is fascination and magnetism in it. A woman cannot be entirely womanly—she cannot be a perfect woman—if she is not in perfect health. In just so much as her sickness affects the organs that make her a woman, in just so much she loses attractiveness. This is the vital part of her health. If anything is wrong there, it may result in all manner of ills all over the body. Careless, or too busy, physicians frequently treat the symptoms of this kind of disorder as separate and distinct ailments. The symptoms are many and varied, so much so that when a woman is sick in any way, the first thought should be given to the organs distinctly feminine. About 9 times in 10 the cause of the trouble will be found there. Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all disorders of this kind. There is no guesswork about it. There is no chance about it. It is a fact that has been demonstrated in 30 solid years of extensive practice.

Thousands of women have written grateful letters, who have wished the whole world of women to know the wonderful things the "Prescription" has done for them.

ON THE BOOM.

Business Shakes Off Its Recent Attack of Lethargy.

The Bass Works Busily Engaged in Building Boilers and Machinery—Railway Traffic on the Increase.

The Bass works are becoming well supplied with orders for machinery. This morning the firm closed a contract to build a 500 horse power Corliss engine for a sugar manufacturer at New Orleans. This, added to the orders taken in previously, puts the machine room in good shape for several weeks, so far as the work is concerned. The boiler department is also supplied with orders sufficient to keep the men working for the next month or two, having one contract, calling for twelve boilers, upon which work has not yet been more than fairly started. In the blacksmith department day and night forces are working steadily upon car axles and heavy forgings for steamboats and rolling mills and in the foundry the moulders are working nearly full time. Taken as a whole the situation at the Bass works is indeed very encouraging.

HAD HIS HAND PINCHED.

J. W. Williams, a Wabash conductor, went between two cars last evening to couple them together, when his right hand was caught between the drawbar heads. The bone of the little finger was broken and the third finger and the hand were slightly bruised. He was taken to Hope hospital, where Dr. M. F. Porter dressed the hand. The accident happened in the yards near Calhoun street. Mr. Williams left this morning on train No. 5 for Peru, where he will remain in the company's hospital until he is able to resume work. He has worked for the Wabash company nineteen years and this accident is the first he has met with.

MR. WALTON COMPLIMENTED.

Lafayette Reporter: "The action of Superintendent Walton, to whose earnest efforts the early arrival of the pay car is due, is most commendable. It will put ready money in circulation, and comes like a good rain after a long drouth. The Panhandle company has always been the friend of Logansport, and can yet be depended upon for a helping hand in spite of the reduction of force at this point on account of slow times. The Reporter, in the behalf of the people of Logansport, thanks the Panhandle company and its efficient superintendent, C. H. Walton."

EXCURSIONS TO FORT WAYNE.

The Wabash has gotten out a neat poster, advertising a cheap excursion to this city and Robison park for next Sunday. The train will start from Logansport at 7 o'clock and will arrive here about 9 o'clock. The fare from Logansport and Peru will be $1, from Wabash seventy-five cents and from Huntington fifty cents. Indications point to an immense crowd. As noted in these columns several days ago the Pennsylvania will run two excursions, one from Lima and the other from Plymouth, on the same date and no doubt will bring in several hundred people.

A NEW SIGNAL LAMP.

The Pennsylvania is putting into service a new style of signal lamps which burn kerosene, instead of signal oil. Another improvement over the old style lamp is a new ventilating system which causes a larger flame and adds to the brilliancy of the light. All passenger trains and locomotives on this branch of the system are being equipped with this signal light.

A VALUABLE PACKAGE OF FREIGHT.

The great lens for the telescope of the Yerkes observatory at Lake Geneva, Wis., which has been in process of finishing at Professor Clark's establishment in Cambridgeport, Mass., for the past five years, was taken to Chicago last week in a parlor car, the while car being devoted to this one package of freight. The lens, weighing with its frame about 1,000 pounds, is packed in double boxes, with springs between the walls of the inner and outer casing, and it was loaded in the center of the car in order to place it where it would be the least liable to damage from vibration. Watchmen were stationed at both ends of the car. This lens is the largest in the world. It represents nearly six years of labor, and is valued at $60,000. The glass came from France, in May, 1892, and it cost in the rough about $20,000. The lens is 41¼ inches in diameter, and weighs 515 pounds. The aperture is 40 inches.

ADAMS EXPRESS MAIL.

Conductors on the Pennsylvania railroad have been notified by their superintendents that in order to comply with the new postal regulations they must carry no mail for the Adams express company unless they are paid by the latter for the work. The new law prohibits railroad employes from handling mail matter for any express company unless a portion of their salaries is paid by the corporation for which the work is done. Hereafter unless a trainman is in the service of the Adams express company, he will not be permitted to accept or handle mail for that concern. Men who work for both the express and railroad companies can accept mail, but in all cases it must be delivered to joint agents at destination. The baggagemasters of the Pennsylvania railroad had been handling mail for the express company, but from now on they will not be permitted to do so unless they receive some remuneration for the work.

RAILWAY BUSINESS IMPROVING.

There is a decided improvement in traffic, both passenger and freight, on all the Fort Wayne lines. Three weeks ago the Pennsylvania company had 1,600 box cars standing on sidings along the line of the Fort Wayne branch and today those cars are all in service. The Grand Rapids and Indiana also reports an improvement, though perhaps not so marked as that of the Pittsburg. Last week this road had an increase in traffic for the first time in a month, and this week promises even better results. The same may be said of the Wabash, Nickel Plate, Lake Shore and the Muncie.

A NEW INDUSTRY.

Articles of incorporation of the Fort Wayne Lamp company were filed with the recorder at a late hour yesterday afternoon. The incorporators are R. T. McDonald and Henry J. Miller, of this city, and Samuel Insull, of Chicago, and the capital stock has been placed at $100,000. The company recently purchased the Adams-Bagnall plant at Cleveland, where the works will be continued until such a time as the company sees fit to remove them to Fort Wayne: The articles of association are as follows.

The corporate name of the company will be "Fort Wayne Lamp Co."

The object of the formation of said company shall be the manufacture, sale and hire of electric lamps, lamp trimmings and fixtures and articles associated with and incidental to the use of electric lamps.

The amount of capital of said company shall be $100,000 and it shall be divided into 1,000 shares of $100 each. The directors shall have power in their discretion to issue preferred stock to an amount not exceeding $100,000 in shares of $100 each.

The term of existence of said company shall be fifty years.

The number of directors shall be three and for the first year the directors shall be Ronald T. McDonald, Samuel Insull and Henry J. Miller.

The operations of said company shall be carried on in Fort Wayne, in the county of Allen, and its principal office shall be there

SWAPPED RAILROADS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Vice President C. F. Crocker, of the Southern Pacific company, has returned from the east. He announced that the Sonora railway in Mexico will be turned over to the South Pacific by the Santa Fe about the beginning of July. The exchange of the line of the Mexican road for the line between Mojave and the Needles was to have been made on June 1, but complications arose which made it necessary to postpone the event for a few weeks. The two companies are now awaiting the permission of the Mexican government to make the trade, and when that permission is received the property will be turned over.

BOAT HIRE TOO STEEP.

Shopmen and railway men, who are the best patrons of the various resorts to which Sunday excursions are run, are putting up a "kick" against paying $1 per day for a boat. They claim that fifty cents is a fair price for such service and at that figure, they believe, enough more boats would be taken to swell the receipts to double what they are under present conditions and prices.

FREIGHT AGENTS MEETING.

C. H. Newton, of the Wabash; H. C. Moderwell, of the Nickel Plate; F. E. Sawyer, of the Pennsylvania, and E. S. Philley, of the Lake Shore, all local freight agents, left last night for Washington, D. C., where they will attend the annual meeting of the National Association of Local Freight Agents.

WABASH SHOP OFFICIALS HERE TODAY.

Master Mechanic C. H. Doebler, of the Wabash, called his shop foremen around him today, to discuss matters pertaining to their calling. In the party were Assistant Master Mechanic A. G. Hollingshead, of Ashley; W. S. Cooper, of Fort Wayne; William Yergen, Andrews; Levi Mead, Toledo, Levi Taylor, Peru; Charles Felsky, Montpelier; John Mouhlfield, Tilton, and W. C. Buley, Delray.

A SOLDIERS' TRAIN.

A special train, bearing General Ellen, his staff and 300 soldiers, together with camp equipment and 300 horses, passed through this city, over the Wabash, this morning. It is what, in military parlance, is termed "a headquarters train" and its destination is Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont. On board was a brass band of forty men, said to be the finest musical body in the United States army. The train was turned over to the Nickel Plate at New Haven.

A scheme is being discussed in newspapers and at meetings for the construction of a submarine tunnel between Ireland and Scotland. Its length would be about twenty miles; it would need to be carried about 1,000 feet below the sea level in mid-channel, and its cost would be anything from $10,000,000 upward.

GIVING OUT THE POTATOES.

An Old Soldier's Reminiscences of an Event In Army Life.

"Sometimes," said the old soldier, "we got considerable many potatoes and the wagon we wouldn't have any at all for weeks, very likely nothing but hard bread and coffee and pork and may be corned beef, and perhaps beans, but whether we got them often or seldom potatoes were always more or less of a luxury

"It was likely to be known in the company when we had potatoes. When we had something the men didn't care anything about, or something that we had been having right along, it might be that not more than half the men would get into line at the cook's tent or at the fire when the call sounded There was sure to be enough—there might be some men who wouldn't want their ration at all—and you would see men straggling across the company street toward the fire singly and, later, carrying their tin plate and moving leisurely. No hurry They were quite willing to take their place at the end of the line, and, in fact, they didn't try to get there until the line had been pretty nearly all served, so that they wouldn't have to wait long, and they wouldn't have cared much if it had been all gone when they got there. But on days when we had potatoes it was different. Then the whole company turned out promptly and formed in line, single file, the right resting on the cook's tent and the whole line moving forward as the men got their rations.

"There was no greater test of a cook's management than the way in which he gave out potatoes, and the man who could do this to the satisfaction of everybody was a good deal of a man Is was impossible to give everybody exactly the same quantity, but an effort to get as near to this as possible, a spirit of fairness, was recognized instantly and nobody expected more. The potato he got might not be so big by a quarter as the one he saw put on the plate of the man ahead of him, but he said nothing. Somebody had got to have the other potato, and it might just as likely have come to him.

"But something more than fairness was required to give out the potatoes successfully. A man had got to keep the run of what he had given out and the number of men supplied and have some idea of the number of potatoes left and of the number of men to come. He could give himself some margin by issuing the big potatoes generally first. On a pinch, along at the end, he could give out to three or four men a single one of the biggest of the smaller potatoes instead of two. But he must know whether there were any men who had not come yet and whether they were likely to turn up or not, and he must keep the run of all these things without stopping to think, as he forked up the potatoes from the camp kettle and put them on the plates held out to him by the men as they passed. And generally he came out just right. More than once I have known him to put the last potato on the last man's plate.

"But he did not always bring things out with that nicety. I have known as many as three men on the end of a line to be left without any potatoes—all gone. Well, now, there was a situation—no potatoes issued for a month before and none likely to be issued for a month again. Here they were, all the other men in the company eating potatoes at that minute and none for them You can't very well describe just how they did feel, but they never said a word. They looked at the cook and the cook looked at them. It was a miscalculation, and that was all there was to it. The cook had given out his own potatoes and had none for himself, and the three men walked down the company street, looking neither to the right nor to the left, and to their tents, and ate hard bread on a day when all around the camp was filled with luxury." —New York Sun.

A Handsome Complexion

is one of the greatest charms a woman can possess. POZZONI'S COMPLEXION POWDER gives it.

HIRONS' VEGETONE.

It can be Procured at Your Druggists.

The Effective Vegetable Tonic for Constipation, Indigestion, Malaria, Liver, Kidneys, Nerve Troubles, and Headache.

Use Hirons Double Treatment for Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Use Hirons New Asthma and Cough Cure for Asthma, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung Troubles.

Vegetone is purely vegetable in its composition. It is a reliable and permanent cure for diseases of the liver and kidneys, constipation, chills, malarial fever, loss of appetite, and a sure and effectual cure for headache and dyspepsia.

Vegetone acts by giving tone to the stomach, strengthening the liver and kidneys, and assists these most important organs in throwing off the impurities in the blood. Every person, in the spring of the year, needs a good, safe tonic for the replenishing of the system after a winter of inactivity, and Vegetone will produce the desired effects, being purely vegetable and a mild, pleasant laxative, thus throwing off the bile from the stomach, producing new vigor.

CATARRH.

One of the most troublesome and dangerous diseases known to mankind, can in the large majority of cases, be permanently cured. Many who were victims to that disease have been cured, and many more are being cured. Double treatment for Catarrh does its work effectually; clearing it out of the head, driving it out of the blood, where it exists, and ever will exist, unless the health destroying virus is eradicated from the system. Cure it. For it is not only a constant discomfort, but a perpetual menace to life. Use the New Asthma and Cough Cure as the blood purifier, and the Speedy Catarrh Cure for the nasal treatment for Catarrh, and soon those troublesome and distressing symptoms will disappear. The constant dripping of the mucous into the throat, and the pain in the head will cease. The hearing, sight, smell, and taste will be restored.

HAY FEVER.

Hay Fever, or Hay Asthma as it is often called, is a combination of Bronchial and Nasal affections. The immediate cause and source of irritation being of external origin, attacking individuals during the months of May, June and August. The pollen of hay, dried grasses and rag-weed comes in contact with the nasal and bronchial membranes, involving all the air passages, causing immediate irritation, frequently disabling persons afflicted therewith. The great discomfort and suffering, say nothing of the loss of life caused by this terrible disease, may be avoided by using Hirons' Double Treatment, which is a sure, safe and permanent cure. Commence using the medicine at once, and get your system in condition to resist the effect of these agencies upon the mucous membrane, thereby keeping the tissues in a healthy condition.

ASTHMA.

Asthma is a contraction of the nerves connected with the lungs, and is produced by three causes. First, by sensitive area of mucous membrane. Second, an abnormally sensitive nerve center, and third, by an external irritant. With all three of these factors simultaneously, an attack of Asthma is produced. The disease often arises from Heart trouble, nasal catarrh and dyspepsia. Some of the symptoms, short, quick, difficult breating, wheezing, with spells of coughing and suffocation. Asthma is supposed by some to be incurable, but the use of a few bottles of Hirons' New Asthma and Cough Cure will prove to the contrary.

Cured of Catarrh.

The Hirons Medicine Co.:

DEAR SIRS:—I am twenty-eight years old, had Catarrh all my life. For years my appetite was bad. I could not sleep well. I was becoming deaf. The disease in my head became so bad that one could hear the air escape from my ear. To sum it all up, the disease was killing me by inches. I heard of your double treatment for Catarrh and began the use of the medicine at once. After using eight bottles of your remedies. I am happy to say, that I have a good appetite, I sleep well, my deafness is cured, and I have gained sixteen and one-half pounds in four months. I advise every one who has Catarrh to give your medicine a trial.

EMMA CAMPBELL,
47 John Street.

Believes It Saved Her Life.

The Hirons Medicine Co.

GENTLEMEN:—I wish to tell you how thankful we are for the great good your medicine has done for our daughter, Mrs. John Metcalf. We sincerely believe that it saved her life. In November she had a bad case of LaGrippe, it left her with an awful cough. Our family physician informed her husband that she was threatened with consumption. We knew not what course to pursue, until one day when Mrs. Metcalf was reading your advertisement in the WEEKLY SENTINEL she resolved to try a bottle of your new Asthma and Cough Cure. After using the remedy for a short time she was able to sit up in bed. In two weeks she was up and around. Her cough ceased, and now she is entirely cured, and advises all who have lung or throat trouble to give your medicine a trial.

Yours Truly,
SAMUEL DISLER.

WHERE MINES GROW.

Of late years silver production has outstripped gold. A different condition of affairs exists in the now renowned Kootenai country. While silver predominates in some localities there, yet the streams have placer gold in paying quantities, and at Rossland, in the Trail district, gold is king. Copper and iron are found and coal also, at some places.

The recent development of this region and of that contiguous thereto in Washington, has been phenomenal. Mines of exceeding richness, from the grass roots down, have been opened all over the mountains; railroads have been built into and through the country; steamboat lines on the lakes and rivers have been increased and expanded, and towns sprung up as if by magic.

The country is good for rich or poor, the climate is mild and bracing, and the scenery grand beyond description.

Among the prominent mining camps are Rossland, Nelson, Ainsworth, Kaslo, Slocan, Salmon River, Cariboo and Deer Park.

The mountains are well timbered, rendering fuel cheap, and living expenses are reasonable.

Smelters are located at several points contiguous to the mines.

The year 1896 witnessed a wonderful emigration to the Kootenai country, and it will be eclipsed by the record of 1897.

The direct route to this land of gold, from the east, is via the Northern Pacific railway to Spokane, Wash., and Spokane Falls and Northern railway from that point north.

West of the Rossland region lies the Boundary Creek country—practically a continuation of the former—of very rich promise but as yet of meagre development. South of the Boundary line, in Washington, is the "Reservation" country, a land also of promise.

A full description of the Kootenai region can be obtained by sending to Chas. S. Fee, Gen. Pass. Agent, N. P. Ry., St. Paul, Minn., for their new Kootenai Folder and elaborate relief map. This is the best map published of

MURDER MOST FOUL.

Catholic Monks Roasted on the Philippine Islands.

The Rebels Burned Them in Revenge for Cruelties Practiced by the Spanish on Friends of the Rebel Cause.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—For further interviews with officers of the steamer Hyades, now in port, elicit the fact that twenty-five Catholic monks were roasted by the rebels in the Philippine Islands, and not by Spanish troops. The information was furnished by a prominent resident of Iloilo, in the group of islands and records stated by a foreign consul. In correspondence of cruelties practiced by the Spanish troops on the rebels, with the suggestion of being in sympathy with the rebel cause, the rebels in revenge perpetrated acts of cruelty on the helpless monks who came in their clutches. The customary mode of roasting suckling pigs in the islands is by thrusting a bamboo through the pig and then fastening it to an iron and roasting it over a slow fire. This was done to the monks, the bamboo being thrust through them while they were alive.

Previous to the voyage to this port the Hyades made a trip from Hong Kong to Iloilo, and it was just previous to the voyage that the acts reported occurred near Manila.

WAR WITH JAPAN?

A London Paper Says America May be Too Willing.

The Japanese May Land an Armed Force on the Hawaiian Islands at Almost Any Time.

LONDON, June 8.—The St. James Gazette this afternoon, commenting upon the dispute between Japan and Hawaii, which is described as a contempt little republic run by a handfull of American filibusters, says: "As Hawaii has no resisting power, the question arises, will the United States government use its prestige through its troubles? The Japanese may land an armed party at any moment. Then what will the Philadelphia do? Japan, since she annexed the Chinese, is believed to be spoiling for a fight with a white power, and she may find America ready to oblige her sooner than she expects."

MURDER IS SUSPECTED.

Mysterious Death of a Farmer Near Terre Haute.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 8.—The coroner is in doubt as to the cause of the death of a man, supposed to be James Bates, a well-to-do farmer, living east of town. Near "Twelve Points," a mile of roadhouse north of town, a street car ran over a man late last night. The head was on one rail, the feet on the other, and when the wheels struck the body, the top of the head was cut off, the brain being scattered along the track. A bottle of whisky was found on the dead man's body. A week ago at the same place a rotten tie was passed on the track, derailing a double deck car. The position of the body leads to the belief that the man may have been murdered and his body placed across the track.

HIS ASHES HELD FOR DEBT.

Unusual Developments in the Trial of the Davis Will Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 8.—A sensation was sprung by counsel for the contestants in the Davis will case when it was shown that the ashes of the deceased millionaire, over whose property his heirs are now wrangling, are being held by Undertaker Schuyler of Philadelphia as security for the sum of $50, the value of the casket in which the remains reposed before being cremated, as well as for the process of embalming. It is contended by the elder son, however, that the ashes only remain in the custody of the undertaker because no one has any authority to take charge of them.

NO DELEGATES.

Democrats Leave Out Resolution to the Gold Mining Convention.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 8.—Governor Dan W. Jones, of Arkansas, has refused to appoint delegates to represent Arkansas at the international gold mining convention to be held in Denver early next month. Mayor Worden appointed five delegates from Little Rock. When asked if he would appoint delegates from the state at large, Governor Jones said: "I intend to ignore this convention all another, and shall decline to appoint delegates to it. There is no silver in it, and I am opposed to anything of this kind that seems intended to the interests of Democracy."

A Doctor Loses an Appeal for Attempted Blackmail.

THE DURRANT CASE.

He Will Hang Ere Any of the Interested Ones Are Interfered.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The peculiar actions of the Durrant cause in securing an unusual amount of publicity continue. Since the postponement of the Wednesday session in the opinion is generally expressed that Durrant will not hang on Friday next. Attorney General Fitzgerald, however says that unless officially notified or restrained Warden Hale stands ready to carry out the sentence. It is generally believed among the legal fraternity that pending the action of the United States supreme court, Governor Budd will grant a reprieve.

A Victim of the Grippe at Nottingham Passed With Remarkable and Speed-ily Current Away.

His grandfather was the fifth viscount of St. John. He is a twin brother of Frederick Robert St. John, her majesty's present minister to Switzerland, who was minister to Venezuela when diplomatic relations were broken off. The dead consul was sixty years of age and had been in the consular service since 1867. His wife and son are now in Paris.

The art treasures which mark the close of Westminster seminary for the vacation season, were held yesterday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of people who enjoy the cultured things of life. The guests were received by Mrs. O. B. Wells, Miss Sharp, Miss Whitridge and Miss Brown. Mrs. Hayhe, Miss Phillips, Misses Carrie Sharp, Harriet Elliot and Blanche Penfield ushered the visitors through the exhibit. Miss Sharp presided at the tea table, assisted by Misses Helen Davies and Jennie Stahl. Miss Cox served punch, assisted by Misses Harriet Elliot and Bessie McCrea. Quaint pictures and white carnations were the flower decorations. The display consisted of gems purchased by the pupils of the school, done in water colors, oil, charcoal, pastel and pen and ink. The keramic exhibit was greatly admired, and in fact the entire collection was superb. The commencement exercises will be held this evening at the First Presbyterian church.

GERMAN BAPTISTS.

Big Trade Lands Are in the Possession of Conspirators.

FRANKLIN, Ind., June 8.—Special trains over both the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio railways continue to bring large numbers of German Baptists, or "Dunkards," to attend the annual meeting now in session here. The quaint costumes worn by many of them are seen in every part of the city, and every hour of the past forty-eight sets those headed for sleep has been given up to the discussion of subjects of interest to the sect. The annual business session was formally opened this morning by Elder I. W. Teeter, of Hagerstown, Ind., moderator; Elder Daniel Hays, of Broadway, Va., reading clerk; Elder David Eby, of Illinois, assistant, and Elder J. W. Moore, of Mt. Morris, Ill., writing clerk. The sessions are held in the tabernacle.

The stock is issued against the proceeds of new lines and new building in Chicago and Boston. In its application the company says that no dividend has been paid. It will next come before the governors, who meet tomorrow. The application for additional stock of the Western Union Telegraph company is also unpaid.

Unapprehended Murderer.

ST. LOUIS, June 8.—Chief Larkin is in receipt of a letter from Chief Hayes, of the police force of Kansas City, Kas., regarding the finding of a woman's body on the tracks of the St. Louis, Kansas City & Colorado railroad, near Quindaro, about the body to be that of Irene Michal, a Frenchman recently arrived. August Gesar, a fellow countryman, who came from New Orleans with Michal, and who appeared the day of Michal's murder, is held by the coroner's jury for the dead man's murder. Michal had $250 and a gold watch.

LIKE MURDER.

Isaac Hoffman's Death Not a Case of Suicide.

His Bookkeeper Theodore Ehrl is Charged With the Crime--The Blood Inspired by Fear or Greed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—A sensational arrangement of Theodore Ehrl, book keeper for Isaac Hoffman, has been made by Attorney Henry Ach, speaking for the partners of the dead merchant, who declares he was deliberately murdered. This statement was made in the presence of H. M. Rothchild and Joseph Naphtaly, counsel for Mrs. Hoffman. It reviews details of the case and is a strong argument against the theory of suicide. When questioned directly as to whether the basis would come out right under experimentation Ehrl frankly admitted that they would not, as he had made false entries in the bank account in the firm's ledger at Hoffman's suggestion to cover up drafts made in excess of his allowance. Ehrl further said that no one but himself could make the books balance, as many entries had to be made of which no other knew. In his sworn affairs Ehrl employed Edgar L. Atkinson, C. Burlingame and William Taylor as agents. They managed the stable and had charge of his direction. They claim that Ehrl was a heavy winner but admit that they have wagered large sums on single races for their principal.

Rain stopped the contest after twenty-one and one half miles had been covered by the three leaders, Farnsworth, Glaw and Mack, who were tied for first place. At the end of the first hour Farnsworth, Glaw, Mack and Brown, in the order named, had gone twenty miles, breaking the world's record of nineteen miles, ten laps, for the first hour of a twelve hour race outdoors, made a year ago by Farnsworth at Minneapolis. In a run to see the riding Miss Mack and Harp received severe bruises and their wheels were wrecked.

THE U. S. COURT.

Meets and Completes Business in One and One-Half Hours.

Marriage Contract Annulled by Judge Dawson, Divorce Cases Court News.

The United States court convened in this city this morning, with Judge Baker on the bench, Clerk Noble C. Butler, District Attorney A. W. Weland and United States Marshall Sam Kendall were present. A jury was not empaneled, but three were in readiness for them and they were discharged. James Kelly was discharged as insolvent in Tax. No. 1, a few days ago. The most important case was that of Kaiser, Beck & Co., of Bremen, Germany vs. the Creighton Brewing company, suing for an injunction restraining the Creighton from using the label Kaiser on their beer. The case was settled by agreement, defendants dropping the name and the plaintiffs not asking any damages in consideration thereof. Judge Baker approved the agreement and it was entered on the record. In about one and one-half hours after court convened the docket was cleared, and adjournment taken. All officers returned to Indianapolis this afternoon.

HAD ANOTHER WIFE.

In the superior court this morning Judge Dawson annulled the marriage of Laverne Bowler and Edwin Bowler alias Edwin Beesley. The plaintiff alleged that they were married in January, 1896, and at that time defendant had a wife living in Providence, Rhode Island, and another living in England. He was a machinist employed at the Wayne Knitting mills. After hearing the evidence Judge Dawson decided that inasmuch as the marriage had been procured by fraud it was null and void and he restored the woman to her maiden name, Laverne Brooks Kimball.

NEW SCHEDULE.

Republicans Agree Upon the Sugar Tariff.

To Secure the Party Representation Vote to Extend Reciprocity Provisions to the World Both.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The republican senatorial caucus today voted to stand together on all schedules in the tariff bill. The caucus instructed the finance committee to report the sugar schedule. The new source schedule is to be all specific, and on all sugar which has gone through a process of refining one and one-half hundredths of a cent per pound duty instead of one cent and eight hundred and seventy-five one-thousandths of one cent per pound as provided by the house.

Cuban raw sugars from the Philippine Islands are also to be admitted at one-eighth of the duty less than other raw sugars. The administration of the Hawaiian treaty was discussed but no conclusion reached when the caucus adjourned.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

Two Couples Will Repeat in This City Who Were Married at Monticello, Ohio.

Mrs. Aurelia Chilcote has returned from Wilmington, Ohio, where she attended the double wedding of a couple who are her intimate friends and who have frequently visited in this city.

The church of the Immaculate Conception was lavishly decorated with bridal white, with a profusion of ferns and rice about the altar, with a passage from the carriage to the altar laid and lined with white. Promptly at 9 o'clock the wedding party and attendants entered in the following order: The first bride, Miss Anna Martin, leaning on the arm of her brother, E. S. Martin, followed by the prospective groom and best-man, Miss Mary Chilcote, sister of the bride. Then came the second bride, Miss Mary Morris, escorted by Mr. James Wheeler, and the groom, followed by the groom's attendant, Miss Anna Martin, sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Lee. After the wedding the party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at

We regret to announce that summer has been unfavorably postponed on account of the weather.

Experts say that mental dwarfs are more common than physical ones. These attacks on congress ought to be stopped.

Our new Arkansas law has been passed taxing airships. Possibly the idea is that as taxes increase prices, they may go up.

A Kentucky paper says the lynching in Ohio was badly managed, and there can be no offense in remarking that this is expert testimony.

Cuba is costing Spain $11,000,000 a month, while the revenue from the island is less than $1,000,000 a month. It is a settled fact that Spain is not a nation of merchants.

Mr. Moore, the late consul general to Paris, says in an interview that the consular system should be improved and expurgated. He hated the reformatory. Several judges throughout the state have given similar rulings. As a matter of public good, however, although opposed to the law, Judge Gibson feels it to be his duty to uphold it until the supreme court has made a final decision thereon, and the will be done.

Congressman Henry U. Johnson, of this state, enjoys the distinction of being the smallest talker in the house of representatives. Next to him comes Congressman Lewis, of the state of Washington. Johnson's average is 250 words to the minute. The congressman from the Richmond district is a nervous sort of an individual, radical in his views, outspoken in debate, and decidedly aggressive. He is in poor health.

A wise and witty woman once remarked that there were three supreme follies of men that always both puzzled and amused her. The first was to climb trees to shake fruit down, when if they would wait long enough the fruit would fall down itself. The second was going to war to kill each other, when if they would only wait they would die natural deaths. The third is that they should run after women when, if they did not do so, the women would run after them.

An Example of Bad Taste.

It is feared that the proposition to impose a duty on tea and increase the tax on beer will be defeated in the senate. It is said that the president is opposed to both because they would convey the idea that the ball rejected by the finance committee was mere for the purpose of producing revenue than for protecting American industries.

It may well be believed that the National Brewers' association will bring a strong influence to bear upon the defeat of the beer tax and that the republican leaders will not be indifferent to the wishes of that powerful combination. It would not be accounted good politics to insure the displeasure of an organization which practically controls the saloon vote of the country. But with the president the chief purpose seems to be to emphasize the protective features of the new tariff and to carry out the doctrine to which he has been devoted throughout the period of his public career.

With the influences the administration directed in this channel, it is doubtful whether the keynote of Mr. Aldrich in the senate will prevent an increase of tariff upon many commodities which the republicans are bound by every requirement of honor to keep down to the present rate of taxation. This policy was foreshadowed by John Sherman when he made his opening speech in the McKinley canvass, and Mr. Beveridge would certainly have been elected had the sound money democrats who supported McKinley dreamed that the present congress would so far forget the pledges of the republican leaders in the last campaign as to attempt to make the advance in tariff schedules which is now favored by the ruling party in the house and senate.

There is an unmistakable disposition to get back as nearly as possible to the McKinley bill and to impose upon the people an oppressive tax for the benefit of the manufacturers. The republicans may succeed in doing this, but in the end it will give to free trade the most vigorous impetus it has ever received. It will cut off from the republican party all of the support which it received last autumn from the anti silver democrats and will leave it to rock on with the people at the next presidential election without any reasonable apology for its treachery and bad faith.—Kansas City Star.

TO ADVANCE FARMING.

Institute Held by the Agriculturists of Madison and Monroe Townships.

The farmers of Madison and Monroe townships convened in an institute June 4 in the grove near the Krouse school house, with Alexander Johnson as president and Miss Ida J. Holbrook as acting secretary.

The institute was opened with prayer by Benjamin McIntosh. They had listened to a very instructive and interesting paper on "Poultry for Profit," by Mrs. Rose Hook, discussion by Mrs. Scott, Mr. Brown and Mrs. Joel Hook. Dust, "Eggs for Breakfast, by C. Kunkle and N. Hook. The subject, "Sugar Beets for Profit in Allen County," was ably presented by U. R. Spalding, discussed by S. Hook, Mr. Brown, Mr. Shaffer and the president.

The institute then adjourned for a good, sensible, refreshing time, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The subject, "The Cost and Profit of the Horse," was well presented by J. D. Crosline and C. Yoose, followed by a very instructive paper on the subject, "Cause and Cure of Hog Cholera," by N. L. Shaffer. The subject, "Principle Hay the Most Profitable Farm Crop," was likewise ably discussed by Messrs. Hockemeyer, Lage, Brown and Yoose. "How Best to Secure the Best Stand of Clover" was very ably presented by William Brown. "The Best Utilization of Corn Fodder" was also shown by S. Hook. By consent, the old committee was retained, with the addition of Mrs. Rose Hook and Mrs. L. B. Scott.

Huntington Herald: Henry Ballerman and Mrs. Otto Herbst, of Fort Wayne, passed the Sabbath with Louis Strabel and family in this city. Rain Causes the Inter-State Clubs to Take a Day Off.

Interesting Gossip About the Different Teams Result of the Games Played on the National League.

On account of rain or wet grounds there were no games played in the Inter-State league yesterday. The Fort Wayne club will be on deck at Toledo today and tomorrow. On Thursday they will return home and play four games with Toledo.

National League—New York, 10; Chicago, 6; Boston, 4; Pittsburg, 6; Baltimore, 4; St. Louis, 2; Philadelphia, 1; Cincinnati, 0; Cleveland, 7; Washington, 6; Louisville, 3; Brooklyn, 1.

Western League—Milwaukee, 7; Indianapolis, 8; Columbus, 9; Kansas City, 6; Grand Rapids, 10; Minneapolis, 9; St. Paul at Detroit—wet grounds.

Western Association—No games scheduled.

INTER-STATE LEAGUE

Dayton at Springfield.
Fort Wayne at Toledo.
Youngstown at New Castle.
Mansfield at Wheeling.

NOTES.

Wayne is able to be out on the streets, but cannot go into the box for two weeks.

Donahue is playing in the Michigan league, but would like to return to Fort Wayne. He may be sent for if a catcher is needed.

Funkhouser is playing third base for the South Bend Senators. Last Sunday, in a game against the Whitings, he made four errors in five chances, did not make a hit and fanned the air a couple of times.

New Castle News: "Pitcher Lipp was suspended for two weeks Wednesday. He was given that length of time to get into form. Lipp is all right, and, with a little practice, will twirl with the best of them."

Gus Schmelz has resigned the management of the Washington base ball club. The poor work of the senators this season caused a demand for a change, and he retired voluntarily. J. Earl Wagner will temporarily take charge of the team. A new outfielder will be engaged, and other changes will follow.

Wheeling Register: "The local management has completed arrangements to play Sunday ball at Bonnieconnell island, opposite Parkersburg. Excursion trains will be run by the Ohio river road at a reduced rate and the round trip will cost, including admission to the game, $1.00—cheap traveling for 100 miles."

Dayton Times: "Manager Tebeau left Monday morning for a two or three days' trip, and it is whispered that he has gone to look for something that might be of use to him with the Darkness club. When interviewed he said he has decided that although several of the boys are in a bad condition, that there is something else wrong and he is not going to be caught napping. There is some talk of the Ohio and West Virginia league breaking up and he has most likely gone to look over the material in that league."

Dayton Times: "Up at New Castle the sporting editors are eating lemon pie and drinking sarsaparilla and blowing about Hickman leading all pitchers in the Inter-State league. They say he has won six out of ten or ten out of nine, etc. Well, Dayton has a pitcher in Eli Rowbotough who has not lost a game, and he has pitched several games, allowing the opponents from three to six hits. Eli always gets there, and still he is only a farmer and don't pose as the only squash in the patch. Guess there's a match or two in Mr. Rowbotough's record now."

COST OF COUNTY AFFAIRS.

A Report Gathered From Auditor's Statistics.

Indianapolis, June 8.—The following figures were compiled from the auditors of the different counties, and shows how much it cost to run county affairs during the last fiscal year, ending May 31:

Allen	$201,707 80
Jackson	44,000 00
Elkhart	78,000 00
Jeffersonville	112,000 00
Kosciusko	57,000 00
Lagrange	36,000 00
Noble	46,000 00
Whitley	37,000 00

This, however, does not show a true comparison because of differences of population, as taking the rate cost in each county in 1896 and using that as a basis, it is found that Allen county spent approximately $11.39 for each voter, DeKalb $10.51, Elkhart $9.62, Lagrange $7.21, Noble $7.54, Whitley $8.87, Kosciusko $14.45. But deducting the amount paid for new county buildings in Kosciusko county, the result is $4.76.

Again taking the census of 1890 as a basis for each individual Allen county spent $3.17, DeKalb county spent $2.56, Elkhart county spent $2.87, Lagrange county spent $1.46, Noble county spent $2.18, Whitley county spent $2.47, Kosciusko spent $3.42. This is exclusive of amounts paid for new buildings, $2.48.

It will be seen from this statement that Lagrange county is the most economical, and Allen the most generous.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

IN FRONT OF A LOCOMOTIVE.

An Experience That Made Postmaster For Making a Man Unhappy.

The young engineer who has just been graduated from college is likely to remember the incidents of his first ride on a real steam engine longer than some of the lessons he took four years to learn at the university.

"I went up to New York the other day on my first engine test," said a young M. E. of Philadelphia, who is in the employ of a locomotive works. "It was a novel and interesting experience—I'd like to have it myself enjoyed. But then, a fellow could enjoy almost any old thing after working four months in the grime and dirt and grease of the shop at the munificent rate of 8 cents an hour.

"The engine we tested was made for the Jersey Central railroad to haul the Royal Blue express from New York to Washington. The engineer of tests and I rode from Philadelphia in an engine cab to Jersey City, where the engine we were to test was waiting for us in the round-house. It was a beauty a great, shining iron beast, with drivers 84 inches high. It had been brought to the roundhouse the day before, and the workmen had tried up one lame duck and polished grates. We placed the inbetween in the cylinder, coaled our engine, filled the water tank, backed into the station, hitched to our train and were all ready to start when the time came.

"The engineer of tests and I took our places on the front of the engine on the right hand side. He read the draft gauge and speed, and I sat on top of the cylinder, taking indicator cards. You haven't any idea of the tremor created by a train running at the rate of more than a mile a minute until you get out on the front end of an engine. The engine cab is a calm and sequestered retreat in comparison. It seemed to me that we were tearing the very heart out of the wind. The engine under me snorted and panted and quivered like a wild animal in a rage as it sprang forward wildly into space, striking shrilly half the time. The wind smote my cheeks like the blow of a sharp blade. My eyes smarted with smoke and the tears that the wind dried. But for all that it was glorious—the very apotheosis of motion. The landscape rushed past me like a frightened thing. Farms, towns, rivers, the earth, the sky, all was an indiscernible blur. At times I wondered if the iron monster wasn't running away. And then I thought of the derby who said he'd rather be in a railway disaster than a steamboat mess up, for in the former case, 'Dey gives it last in the latter. What is you?'

"When we reached Elizabeth we discovered that one of our crushed goules was getting hot. It had probably been lined up wrong. We stopped, oiled it up well and started again, but it troubled us so that we had to slow down considerably, and by the time we reached Belle Meade it was almost hot. That ended our test for that day. We took off our engine and let the train proceed with a switch engine we picked up at Belle Meade, while we backed into Jersey City. It was 7 o'clock at night by the time we had all our traps off the engine and were ready to start for home. We hadn't eaten a bite since morning. Well, I went to think after a football game that I knew what it was to be hungry and stiff, but my riders that engine cylinder convinced me that I had previously had only the faintest conception of what hunger and soreness mean."—New York Sun.

VICTORIA'S HOUSEHOLD.

Royal Functions and Splendid Entertainments at Buckingham Palace.

At the court of Queen Victoria it has not been customary that the staff of maids of honor should exceed eight in number, and at that strength it has been maintained for many years past certainly ever since her majesty was stricken by the heaviest of her many domestic bereavements. During two decades of happy married life the queen had much more frequent occasion for availing herself of the ministrations of the younger ladies of her household than she has had in the comparative seclusion of her widowhood. From 1840 to 1861 Buckingham palace was the scene of many splendid entertainments, and what with state functions, royal visits to the opera house and the principal theaters and an infinite variety of public ceremonies, back her majesty was ushered to her work her presence, the services of her maids and women of the royal household were in continual request. It was, of course, necessary that two of the former should always be in readiness to wait upon their royal mistress at a moment's notice, and this requirement during the season involved daily attendance at the palace of four maids of honor, each one in their full rotation supplied as house visits. Two young ladies were selected as maids of honor, their services being just equal to

The Soldier-President as Pictured to the Writer of a Book.

General Horace Porter, in "Campaigning With Grant," in The Century, dealing with the battle of Cold Harbor, says:

There were critics who were severe in their condemnation of what Grant called "hammering" and Sherman called "pounding," but they were found principally among the stay at homes and especially the men who sympathized with the enemy. A soldier said one night when reading by a campfire an account of a raid issued by a disloyal newspaper at home for a public meeting to protest against the continued bloodshed in the campaigns: "What's shedding this blood anyhow? They better wait till we follow down here at the front before they cry 'Enough!'" The soldiers were as anxious as their commander to fight the war to a finish and be allowed to return to their families and their business.

Grant could have effectually stopped the carnage at any time by withholding fresh battle. He could have avoided all bloodshed by remaining north of the Rapidan, intrenching and not moving against his enemy, but he was not placed in command of the armies for that purpose. It had been demonstrated by more than three years of campaigning that peace could be secured only by whipping and destroying the enemy. No one was more desirous of peace, no one was possessed of a heart more sensitive to every form of human suffering, than the commander, but he realized that paper bullets are not effective in warfare, he knew better than to attempt to bow rocks with a razor, and he felt that in campaigning the hardest blows bring the quickest relief.

He was aware that in Wellington's armies the annual loss from disease was 213 out of 1,000, in our Mexican war 152 and in the Crimea 600, and that in the campaigns thus far in our own war more men had died from sickness while lying in camp than from shot and shell in battle. He could not select his ground for fighting in this continuous siege of fortified lines, for, though he and his chief officers applied all their experience and skill in endeavors to maneuver the enemy out of strong positions before attacking him, his foe was often too able and wily to fall into the traps set for him and had to be struck in positions which were far from Grant's choosing. When Lee stopped fighting, the cause of secession was lost. If Grant had stopped fighting, the cause of the Union would have been lost. He was unprepared for the result equalling looks ever intruded to a mean mandate. He did his duty fearlessly to the bitter end and triumphed. In 12 months after Lincoln hended him his commission of lieutenant general and intrusted to him the command of the armies the war was virtually ended.

The Advice Given.

"I suppose the passengers of man Fifth avenue coach were giving a good deal of advice to the driver," remarked the observer.

"Lots of it," replied Uncle Allen. "It never was my fortune to be a passenger in particular, but it seems from what I overheard I can do time as a driver."—Washington Star.

To those who require for clothing and upholstering a fresh and vital dust destroyer, dissolve a few ounces of pyrethrum powder in soapy water and sponge it over the fabric. Or, if the material will be soiled by the moisture, sprinkle the powder on the fabric and brush it off. The former is the more effective way, but the latter is safer in the case of delicate colors.

Dust collects on the organs that make love a torment, so just so much the more does it annoy them. This is the vital point of hay fever. If anything is wrong there it may result in an attempt of this all over the body. Catarrh, or too busy, physicians frequently find the symptoms of this kind of disorder an unpleasant if not direct adjunct. The symptoms are many and varied, so much so that when a woman is sick in any way the first thought should be given to the organs directly feminine. About a dozen in the course of the trouble will be found there. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription covers all disorders of this kind. There is no guesswork about it. There is no chance about it. It is a fact that has been demonstrated to a solid years of extraordinary practice.

Thousands of women have written grateful letters, which have added to the whole world of women to know the wonderful things that "Prescription" has done for them.

Time Tried,
Time proves the worth of everything. It is the test of honesty. It wears off the exterior and exposes the solidity or the worthlessness beneath. There is nothing more susceptible to time than a piano. One which has stood the test of time—which has stood well in tone, which keeps its perfect action and elastic touch—is as good as any we can offer you. But the ultimate of judging Bauslip. Most pianos sound alike when they are new. We will be glad to help anyone to piano wisdom who cares to learn

ANOTHER TRAGEDY

Similar to the Barber Affair Enacted in Washington.

An Italian Stabs and Shoots Another Man's Wife and Then Shoots Himself in the Head.

Washington, June 9.—A tragedy in which the details were almost precisely similar to those of the Barber suicide and attempted murder, occurred this morning at 920 Fourteenth street, the home of Cherubino Giuliani, an Italian fruit vender. About 8 o'clock Theopal Ferrari, after stealing and stabbing in the neck Mrs. Giuliani, shot him self through the head and died almost instantly. The woman was taken to the emergency hospital, where it is thought she may recover, though her first act, upon arriving there was to call for a priest, from whom she received the last sacraments. Theopo Ferrari was about twenty-eight years old and had been paying no court at tention to Mrs. Giuliani, who is thirty-two, that he made himself offensive to both herself and her husband and had been frequently warned not to visit Giuliani's home. This morning, the husband having gone to market, Ferrari walked through Giuliani's fruit store to the back yard, where Mrs. Giuliani was hanging clothes on the line and made a furious assault upon her, stabbing her in the neck with a penknife and then shooting her. He then turned the revolver upon himself and the bullet lodged in the brain, causing almost instant death.

NANCY CLEM IS DEAD.

Central Figure in Indiana's Most Noted Criminal Case.

Sentenced To Live in Hiding, She Escaped on a Technicality and Shortly Married Some Years for Prophecy.

Indianapolis, June 9.—Mrs. Nancy K. Clem is dead. She was the central figure in Indiana's most famous criminal case; was tried five times for murder, was sentenced to hang twice and finally escaped on a technicality. Mrs. Clem was finally convicted of perjury and served four years in the state female reformatory.

Mrs. Clem was arrested and tried for the murder of Jacob Young and his wife in 1866, who were found dead in their home in Indianapolis. The murders were supposed to have resulted from large money transactions. For the Young murders W. J. Abrams was sentenced to life imprisonment and was pardoned after a confinement of several years. Taylor Hartman, a brother of Mrs. Clem's, was also arrested for complicity in the crime, and committed suicide in jail. Another suspected brother was never captured. Before her death Mrs. Clem said she was not guilty of the Young murders. She was sixty-five years old.

A BIG HORSE RACE

Being Arranged to Take Place in California.

American, British, Irish and Australian Thoroughbreds to Compete for a $10,000 or $50,000 Purse.

San Francisco, June 9.—The Pacific Coast Jockey club directors are trying to arrange an international handicap to be decided at Ingleside next spring. In all likelihood a $20,000 or $50,000 purse will be offered if the directors can bring to gether the best American, Australian, Irish and British thoroughbreds. It is a mooted question as to which of the three countries produces the best race horses. For an international event San Francisco is just the place. Australian horses can be shipped here easily and so can British and eastern steeds. President Henry J. Crocker, in speaking of the matter, said that efforts were being made to arrange such a race.

"We have sent commissioners to Australian racing tracks and our plans are now known to them," he said. "Probably we shall send an agent to Melbourne to personally interview the owners of the great handicap horses. We shall proceed the same way in Great Britain and Ireland. In this country I do not think we will have any trouble in securing the entries of the cream of the handicap division. It will be a great race if we can bring it about."

NO PLACE FOR HER.

Mary Samson, a Leper, Not Wanted in Pittsburgh or Allegheny City.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 9.—The decision of the Baltimore health officials to return Miss Mary Samson, the leper, to Allegheny, Pa., will, it carried out, meet with strong resistance from the health board of the latter city. Health Officer McLaughlin says the woman will not be received in Allegheny City. He believes it possible to prevent her entrance into Pennsylvania from Maryland. A serious complication is likely to be the result.

HALE AND HEARTY COUPLE.

Parents of Twenty-three Children, All of Whom Are Living.

Noblesville, Ind., June 9.—Probably the largest living family in Indiana today is that of Peter Lynch, who resides on a farm near Little York, twelve miles west of here. Mr. Lynch is the father of twenty three children, all living and enjoying good health. There are twelve sons and eleven daughters, and most of them are married and have families of their own. He has only been married once, and his estimable wife is still living. Though quite old, both are hale and hearty, and are mentally and physically sound. Mr Lynch still cultivates his own farm, and can do as much work in a day, it is said, as any two of his sons. His grandchildren already number over sixty. In politics Mr Lynch and family are staunch democrats.

THE LINES TIGHTEN

About the Accused Murderer, T. A. Figel.

The Signature to a Receipt for $9,500, Said to Have Been That of Hoffman, Proves to be a Forgery.

San Francisco, June 9.—The attorneys for Hoffman, Rothschild & Co., who assert that Isaac Hoffman was murdered, have engaged among other experts the noted judge of handwriting, Daniel T. Ames, and he has given a written opinion that the signature of Isaac Hoffman on a receipt for $9,500, which is an important document in the case, was forged. The receipt other than the signature was written by the bookkeeper. Then, A. Figel, as he himself has admitted. Expert Ames has reported that he found similarities between the character of this sample of Figel's writing and the disputed signature attached to it. Attorney Ach expressed the opinion to Chief of Police Lees that Figel should be arrested for alleged embezzlement, but the chief did not think he would be justified in proceeding to that extremity on the facts presented to him. When Mr Rothschild, the New York member of the firm, arrives in this city this week, Ach says he will advise him to have Figel arrested. A test was made at the store of Hoffman, Rothschild & Co. in an endeavor to show that Ewald Thomas' statement about hearing a shot was not credible. Several shots were fired but were not heard by persons stationed where Thomas says he stood. In order to meet the point made by Ach that there is no blood on the grip of the pistol with which Hoffman was killed, Chief Lees, after close examination has discovered several small stains upon the guard of the trigger which he says may have been caused by blood.

CARGO RECOVERED

After Thirty-two Years Beneath the Waters.

The Propeller, Laden With Copper and Gold, Lifted From Her Long Resting Place.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 9.—The hull of the steamer Pewabic, which was sunk by the Meteor thirty two years ago was located last evening off Alpena in 160 feet of water. The wreckers are endeavoring to recover 267 tons of copper which constituted part of the cargo. Its present value is about $60,000. Arrangements with the Home and Pittsburg companies which held the insurance assure the wreckers 60 per cent. of the value of all property recovered.

Alpena, Mich., June 9.—Thirty-two years ago the large passenger steamer, Pewabic, bound from Lake Superior, with about 150 passengers, and a valuable cargo of copper and gold came into collision with her sister steamer, Meteor, in trying to exchange signals, and sank 125 passengers being drowned. It is reported that a large amount of money was in the purser's safe, mostly in coin, which can be now recovered intact, in addition to the valuable cargo.

MINISTER COX.

The Ex-Governor is Tendered a Grand Office.

Much Likely Minister Wade to go to Spain as the Representative of the United States Government.

Washington, June 9.—It is learned today that the president has offered the post of minister to Spain to ex-Governor Jacob D. Cox, of Ohio. Whether or not he will accept is not known. General Cox is an old personal friend of the president, and one in whom Mr McKinley has a great deal of confidence. Although almost seventy years of age, General Cox is still a man of much vigor and energy. Should he be called to this important post he would bring to it an experience gained in important service, and achievements in public and private life. He had a distinguished career as a soldier, rising to the rank of major general. He was governor of Ohio in 1865 and 1867, and for two years was secretary of the interior in President Grant's cabinet, from which he retired on account of disagreement with certain measures of the administration. Later he served in congress, and for a time was president of the Wabash railroad.

Cricket Scores a Score.

Cowes, Eng., June 9.—Rain fell all last night and this morning the pitch was swamped. It was agreed between Captain Coudliffe, of the Out of university eleven, and Captain Patterson, of the Philadelphian eleven, that they call the cricket match a draw, with the score standing 343 for the Oxford men, all out in their first innings, and 183 for the Philadelphians, with seven wickets down in their first inning.

JAPANESE LABORERS

Believed to be Under Contract to Work in Beet Fields.

Many of Them Arrive and on a Few Days are Busy at Work—Agents Are Connecting to Say.

San Francisco, June 9.—Labor Commissioner Fitzgerald received information yesterday to the effect that fifty Japanese who arrived at Watsonville last Sunday had been given employment in the beet fields. The perceptions with which the men were engaged has given rise to the suspicion that they came to the United States under contract to work for Watsonville farmers. Walter H. Stradley, the immigration commissioner, says that a majority of the Japanese immigrants go direct to the beet fields. While no Japanese or Chinese are employed in the factory at Watsonville, the fields are full of orange-hues.

Referring to the statements of the labor commissioner, A. B. Spreckles says: "Some Japanese are working in the fields of the beet growers but 95 per cent. of the labor of beet raising at Watsonville is done by American laborers. Of course the factory does not produce the beets, but can create simply to pay $4 a ton for the beets delivered. The labor is chiefly performed by the farmers, who employ men and boys to cultivate the fields."

CARPET WEAVERS

Have a Promise of Good Times and Plenty of Work.

Due by June the 15th Which Many Long Hours Also Must Their Labors Be Expended.

Philadelphia, June 9.—At a meeting of the Ingrain Carpet Weavers Protective Association last night, in Textile hall, reports were received from delegates representing the sixty two mills in the manufactory at Kensington and Philadelphia. They were to the effect that the feeling among the manufacturers was becoming decidedly cheerful. Nearly all the mills, it was reported, are gradually resuming full time, one of the most prominent being John Gay's house, which started on full time this week, giving employment to about 300 persons. Iverson Brothers' large plant and that of Thomas Gay's Sons were also stated to be on full time and full handed. David McDowell, who is running on full time, informed his employes that the prospects are good. Edward C. Reeds mill and the large plant of John H. Milton are also on full time. John Bagley has all of his looms running, and a number of smaller firms are rapidly following his example.

DURRANT AGAIN.

A. A. Austin Says He is Certain the Prisoner is Innocent.

Austin is a Man of Strong Intellect and Was in San Francisco the Night of the Murder.

San Luis Obispo, Cal., June 9.—A. A. Austin, formerly a prominent attorney of this city, writes to County Clerk Whicher from New port, Ore., that he was in San Francisco the night Blanche Lamontde supposed to have been murdered and says in his letter:

"I think I know a point that will save Durrant, although if I was to speak out and say so people would say I was crazy, the same as others who have advanced theories.

"I am morally certain of Durrant's innocence and mathematically as to whom is guilty, from what I saw the night of the murder when I was in San Francisco. I think I should quietly tell my story to Durrant's attorney."

Austin was a man of strong intellect when here and is known to have been in San Francisco at the time of the murder.

MYSTIC SHRINERS

Close Today's Session by the Election of Officers.

A Side About the City and a Trip to Santa Cruz by Steamer in the Entertainment Provided.

Detroit, Mich., June 9.—The final business session of the imperial council nobles of the Mystic Shrine were held today. The council, by a unanimous vote, decided to hold the 1898 meeting at Dallas, Texas, beginning the second Tuesday in June. A proposition is understood to have been made in the council to increase the imperial recorder's salary, but it was finally left at the present figure, $2,000.

New officers were elected as follows:

Grand Potentate, Albert M. McGaffey, Denver.

Deputy Potentate, Ethelbert F. Allen, Kansas City.

Chief Rabban, John H. Atwood, Leavenworth, Kas.

Assistant Rabban, Lou B. Wasser, Reed City, Mich.

High Priest, Bishop C. Shaffer, Philadelphia.

Oriental Guide, Col. Henry C. Akin, Omaha.

Recorder, Benj. W. Rowell, Boston.

Treasurer, William S. Brown, Pittsburg.

All of the officers were installed at the closing session of the council this afternoon. Late hours and excitement appears to have an effect upon the spirit and health of shriners. This morning's program was largely of a social or pleasure nature. Open house, receptions, etc., were held at several of the headquarters.

Dispensers, mask peddlers and serenaders traversed the down town streets and there was music and make-galore. This afternoon a long string of trolley cars carried the visiting nobles and ladies on a tour of the city, ending at Watsonville park, from whence the crowd was conveyed to Belle Isle for steamer. The big public events of the week will be the land and naval parades which will take place tonight.

SEVERAL CRIMES.

A Colored Fiend Killed by a Mob.

A Tramp Assaults a Lady at Williamsburg —A Family Feud Results in Premature Death.

Batavia, Ohio, June 9.—The quiet little village of Williamsburg was thrown into a state of excitement today by an attempt made by a tramp to assault Mrs. Emma Corbin, a highly respected lady. Mrs. Corbin is in a very critical condition. A posse was immediately organized and started in pursuit of the villain. He was captured at Buddy's brick yard, and Constable Backus had all he could do to prevent the frenzied mob from lynching the perpetrator. The fellow had to be preserved secretly to Batavia to save his life.

Princeton Ave., Md., June 9.—W. Andrews, colored, alias Cobbs, was taken from the officers at the door of the court house and killed by a mob. Andrews had been today tried, convicted of and sentenced to death for feloniously assaulting Mrs. Benj. T. Kelley, near Marion, on May 5. Judge Bage, who passed the death sentence, endeavored to reason with the excited crowd, but in vain.

Albany, Ky., June 9.—A double tragedy was the outcome of a fatal fight last night. Henry Foster and John Sherman, who had been at enmity, quarreled. Foster stabbed Sherman in the side several times with a dirk. Ephraim Rockell went to Sherman's assistance and shot Foster through the head. Both men were fatally wounded. Rockell has not been arrested.

The Commencement Day Exercises Upon the 151th Anniversary of the Founding of the College.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 9.—The 141st annual commencement of the University of Pennsylvania was held today in the Academy of Music. The occasion also marked the 125th year of the university's existence. Degrees in arts, science, law, philosophy, medicine, dental surgery and veterinary medicine were conferred upon 482 graduates. Honorary degrees of doctors of science were conferred upon Professors Henry Morton and Benjamin Wright Frazer and that of doctor of law upon Honorable Wayne MacVeagh, ex-United States minister to Italy. The exercises began at 9:45 o'clock with the graduating classes formed in their various departments in the college hall. At the same hour, Provost Hastings and staff, Mayor Warwick, Provost Harrison, the trustees and members of the faculties also assembled in the new building. Shortly afterwards the march from the college to the Academy of Music was begun, the city troop acting as the governor's escort, where the degrees were conferred.

BUILDING AND LOAN LAW.

Some Associations Expected to Quit Business Under the Provisions.

Indianapolis, June 9.—The new building and loan association law, which will take effect on July 1, 1897, provides that at any time within a year from that date any building and loan association choosing to do so, can go into voluntary liquidation, on the passage of a resolution to that effect by the board of directors, approved by the stockholders. The secretary estimates that the directors of about twenty-five of the 125 associations doing business in this city will close up affairs by calling in loans and distributing money among the stockholders. "This," he says, "gives the associations a chance to get in business at no expense, and no doubt the law will be taken advantage of by the associations that have been doing an unprofitable business."

A BOGUS INSPECTOR.

Man Who Represents Himself To Be an Electrical Inspector is a Fraud.

The police department was today notified to arrest on sight a bogus electrical inspector who has been operating in several residences on Harrison street. The man knocks at a door and the lady of the house admits him, unsuspecting the true nature of the caller, which is their ery. After the fellow has made a disguised attempt at inspecting the wires and chandeliers he departs, usually taking with him such trunks and valuables as come within his reach.

The funeral of Mrs. Michael Himbert will be held Sunday at 2 o'clock from the house and 2:30 from the Salem Reformed church.

WITH HONOR.

Six Young Ladies Graduate From Westminster.

Commencement Exercises at the First Presbyterian Church—Address by President Harrounds.

Six young ladies graduated with honors at the Westminster seminary exercises held at the First Presbyterian church last evening. They were Misses Hannah Laven Chapman, Ruth Parsons Cone, Grace Ameera Cunningham, and Edith Morse Hill, of the Latin course, Misses Jean Watson Fidler and Ethel Ogden Hollick, of the English course.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms and huge clusters of cut flowers. The class motto, "Aumount Fide," was conspicuous. Professor Meyer presided at the big organ. The exercises of the evening were opened by a prayer offered by Dr. Moffat. The address was delivered by George H. Barrougbs, president of Wabash college, who took for his theme, "Women in the Christian Service of Today." It was a plain, comprehensive talk on the possibilities within the reach of women. In the course of his remarks he said:

"When we see 300,000 women in the professional ranks we should be grateful, and when we see 5,000,000 women laboring in the mechanical ranks we should feel the greatest sorrow. But we want to look on the bright side of all things tonight. Woman is finding good success for herself in all sales. When we compare the statistics of 1870, 1880 and 1890, we find these teachers in 1890 to come in 1870. The wonders are constantly increasing their opportunities for service in teaching the various arts. In this line there was a seven fold increase from 1870 to 1890. When I found that women was expressing herself eightfold in the arts of painting and drawing I said that truly Christian service is increasing. Look in the ranks of the writers where there has been a twenty five fold increase in the mentioned time. In a review of a well known and standard magazine I found that out of fifteen stories published in the magazine seven were written by women. Women has naturally reveal herself in literature. What a great opportunity for Christian scientists is presented in the life. In newspaper work there has been a twenty five fold increase. The newspaper is the public pulpit and goes into every home. Here the good work of women has been seen. It has been said that woman should hold up its work. So she does with a delicacy of sentiment of what she said come to the public eye."

Miss Sharp before presenting the diplomas addressed the graduates and her words were responded to by Miss Fidler, of the class.

The exercises were interspersed with vocal and instrumental music furnished by the chorus from the seminary, a trio composed of the Misses Stahl, Loughry and Colter and Miss Zollars. The class song, the words of which were written by Miss Chapman, and the music by Miss Cunningham, was sung by the class.

A reception, at which Mrs. Wells and Miss Sharp received with the graduates, was held at the seminary. The entire house was thrown open, music floated through the spacious halls and the reception was in every way a success. The graduates were costumed in pure white organdie, over white silk and they carried japonicas roses, the class flower. Those who assisted in receiving were Misses Whitcraft, Brown, Cox, Savage, Bayhe and Philley. In the dining room Misses Blanche Lanlack and Edith Yarnelle, former graduates, served strawberry frappe and were assisted by Misses Edith Fidler, Isabel McClure, Blanche Colter, Helen Davis, Harriet Elliott, Pearl Keller, Lettie Geissler and Florence Mckee.

BOSWELL IS TRUSTEE

He Gets Enough Votes on the Seventeenth Ballot.

The Woman's Temple Presents the Name of Mrs. A. D. Gould Amid Applause and Is Defeated.

Never was there within the confines of the city council chamber a more select and interested audience than attended the council meeting last evening. A school trustee was to be selected and there was doubt in the minds of every person as to who had the best chance of being selected. And further, for the first time in the history of the city the mothers were trying to get representation on the school board. Every seat was occupied and many chairs were brought in, more than half of the large assemblage being ladies. They occupied the entire south half of the lobby and many were seated within the railing and at every opportunity demonstrated by their applause that they were in earnest in their efforts to have a lady elected to the board of trustees.

At precisely o'clock, Mayor Schoeff called the council to order and after the minutes of the previous meeting had been approved Councilman Mohr moved that the election of a school trustee be proceeded with. The motion prevailed and Mrs. George F. Fehs, president of the Woman's league, was granted the privilege of addressing the council. She presented, in a forcible and convincing manner, her arguments why the council should select a lady as one of the three representatives on the school board. It was easily seen that the council men did not intend to so select, but the arguments advanced by Mrs. Fehs were effective, plausible, true and had the councilmen not been so positive in their opinions a lady might have had some chance. Mrs. Fehs closed by presenting the name of Mrs A. D. Gould, introducing her for a few remarks. Mrs Gould demonstrated that she knew more than the average man about what was best for our schools. In speaking of the management of the business affairs of the schools Mrs. Gould said that the mothers and daughters did not come into the contest with the hope of controlling the business details of the schools, but the opinion obtained and prevailed that women did not know anything about business so poorly than every man knew all about business. This sentiment was applauded and was a good telling point, but the ladies were not to win. They made their presence known, however, by hearty cheering Mrs. Gould when she had completed her talk with a telling plea that whether a man or a woman was selected, such selection should be made only for the best interests of the schools, and above all there should be no political considerations.

Councilman Rahr presented the name of Dr. K. K. Wheelock, Councilman Glenn presented the name of Mrs. A. D. Gould and Councilman Weller presented the name of Dr. A. J. Boswell. Councilmen Glenn and Purcell were appointed tellers, and the ballots were proceeded with as follows:

First—Mrs Gould, 1; Wheelock, 1; Boswell, 5; P. A. Randall, 2.

Second—Mrs. Gould, 1; Wheelock, 5; Boswell, 7; Randall, 1.

Third—Mrs. Gould, 2; Wheelock, 5; Boswell, 4; Randall, 3.

Fourth—Wheelock, 5; Boswell, 5; Randall, 1; C. E. Edgerton, 1.

Fifth—Wheelock, 6; Boswell, 5; Edgerton, 1; W. H. Tigar, 2.

Sixth—Mrs. Gould, 1; Wheelock, 5; Boswell, 6; Tigar, 2.

Seventh—Mrs. Gould, 1; Wheelock, 5; Boswell, 3; Randall, 1; Edgerton, 1; Tigar, 2; K. A. Hoffman, 1.

Eighth—Wheelock, 4; Boswell, 3; Tigar, 1; Miss Belle Clark, 1; Byron Hattersley, 1.

Ninth—Wheelock, 2; Boswell, 5; Tigar, 2; Newman, 2.

Tenth—Wheelock, 6; Boswell, 5; Tigar, 1; Newman, 2.

Eleventh—Mrs. Gould, 1; Wheelock, 3; Boswell, 6; Newman, 1; Tigar, 2.

Twelfth Wheelock, 4; Boswell, 5; Newman, 1; Tigar, 2.

Thirteenth—Wheelock, 5; Boswell, 5; Newman, 2; Tigar, 2; total, 14.

Fourteenth—Wheelock, 7; Boswell, 6; Newman, 2.

There were fifteen votes cast this time and Mayor Schoeff ordered another ballot without announcing the result.

Fifteenth—Wheelock, 7; Boswell, 3; Newman, 3; John Mohr, jr., 1.

Sixteenth—Wheelock, 5; Boswell, 4; Tigar, 4; Purcell, 1.

Seventeenth—Wheelock, 5; Boswell, 5; Tigar, 1.

Mayor Schoeff declared Dr. Boswell elected and the new trustee was called for and thanked the council for the honor. He was congratulated on all sides and especially elated were the members of the Republican union, who had supported him so faithfully.

Death of Mrs. Michael Himbert Last Evening—Miscellaneous Deaths—Other Items—George W. Ely.

Mrs. Mary Rowe, wife of Judson K. Rowe, the Columbia street merchant, died from childbirth at 5 o'clock this morning, two hours after her baby was born. The home at 143 Lake avenue is indeed shrouded in deep sorrow, for there the husband mourns with four motherless children, the oldest of whom is only six years of age. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Kelly. Her death will cause widespread sorrow, as she was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. The babe a little girl, is apparently healthy and will probably live.

OTHER DEATHS.

Mrs. Michael Himbert died of paralysis last night at the family residence, 14 Lavina street. She was 67 years of age and a native of Switzerland. She came to Fort Wayne with her husband forty three years ago, and had lived here ever since. She leaves two children, John Himbert and Mrs. Chas Graaman. She was a life long member of Salem Reformed church. About two and a half years ago she was stricken with paralysis, but partially recovered, and enjoyed good health until last Thursday, when she was again prostrated.

Sale Says the Merchants on the Exposition Question.

Communities Will Stand Loss in Various Subscriptions to Decide What Course Is Among Business.

Mrs. Sale, of the Sale Commercial agency, has been interviewing the merchants of the city relative to the proposition to have a big exposition here next fall. She says that the merchants are in favor of the exposition, and that they will stand their share of the loss in various subscriptions to decide what course is among business.

The meetings of mercantile men held during the past two weeks have resulted in good. It has become apparent that Fort Wayne is really neglected, from an exposition point of view. This city is a natural center for trade from all quarters within a radius of fifty miles. Our stores are among the finest to be found in the state. The stocks offered for sale equal in quality and prices the goods sold in large cities. It has dawned upon the business men in a concrete light that the running of excursion trains to the city instead of out, will remedy the evil by bringing to the merchants a harvest of customers. They will be benefited, the city will profit by the presence of visitors and the railroads can make money by making Fort Wayne an excursion point as well as they can by trying to take Fort Wayne people away. A committee was appointed last evening to confer with the railroad officials on the matter and secure their co-operation in furthering the scheme. Another committee has been appointed to solicit funds to carry on the campaign which it is thought will open a new era of prosperity for the business men. The reports of these committees will be heard at a meeting, the time and place for which will be duly announced.

HALF HOLIDAY.

Wholesale Grocers Will Close Their Doors at Noon on Saturday, for the Summer.

Beginning June 12 and extending until September 4 a number of the wholesale firms of this city including United States Baking Co., Fisher Bros., Carnahan & Co., Reed Baring Bros. & Millard, Wayne Baking Co., O. B. Barsley & Co., Armstrong & Co., Chas Falk & Co., Nathan Kirschbraun & Co. will close at 12 o'clock Saturday.

Now one can experience more comfort in the good. The Fair.

The election of Dr. Russell was a big victory for the Republican party.

Within two days of the negro lynching in Urbana, Ohio, a colored man was hanged by due process of law in Virginia. That is notation with a vengeance.

A New York paper offers a prize of $5 to anyone who can kill what the new sugar scientists mean. It looks as if Mr. Havemeyer ought to have a crack on that prize.

The United States in 1896 was the largest producer in the world of gold, silver, copper and coal. Great Britain still leads us in coal, but the gap is rapidly closing.

The harvest of ice is closing in Maine and the shipment of watermelons has begun in Florida. Uncle Sam's dream boat does not circle the earth, but he has a fair slice of land in one lump.

A sea serpent 100 feet long has been seen in Maine, the scandal of prohibition. The only reason such monstrosities are never seen in Kansas is because there is not enough water there for them to swim in.

Judge Lindsay has returned from Cuba and while his report of the condition of affairs has not been made public, it may be surmised that it will portray a most unhappy state of things in that fertile island. It is to be hoped that the report will recommend that the government take steps to put an end to the cruel and inhuman war.

It appears that the welfare and the splendid destiny which would otherwise await us great city of New York city with its consolidated population is to be sacrificed to a partisan squabble which will render that magnificent municipality the prey of spoilsmen unless the good citizens of all political organizations arise in their might to forestall that more calamity.

A petition is being circulated among the students of Lawrence university at Appleton, Wis., asking the faculty to abolish military drill, on the ground that it is unchristian and not in harmony with the spirit of the Methodist church. The students have yet to learn that the military drill they study is directed by John Wesley as the scheme of church government, and that he was, in fact, a heathen at heart.

Ohio's workers who have come to Washington since inauguration day, waiting for something to turn up, are sending home for their summer clothes. They are going to remain on the ground all summer, President McKinley is very slow in making appointments.

The action of Judge Baker in putting his foot down heavily on the lawyers who appropriated the contingent fees awarded to a poor girl in a damage suit is highly commendable. These lawyers disgraced their profession and themselves by their exhorbitant charges, and deserve to be held up to public scorn for their greed and the absorption of a poor girl's pittance. They should not only be compelled to disgorge, but in addition also be made to be disbarred.—South Bend Times.

The Woman's Club league made a noble, if not successful, fight for representation on the school board and created an impression in the presentation to the council of their arguments that will certainly redound to the benefit of the schools and possibly finally result in the selection of a lady at some future election to take her place in the management of Fort Wayne's public schools. There are no real arguments against the woman school trustee, while there are innumerable reasons why she should be there. If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.

Extreme Aggression of the President.

Washington Dispatch to the New York Journal: Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, called upon President McKinley a week ago and spent nearly an hour at the White house. This was considered significant, but Senator Tillman said:

"My call on Mr. McKinley was entirely social in its nature, and made by me for the purpose of getting better acquainted with the president than I was able to do at receptions and official calls I had made on him.

"Our conversation was only such as one at any time even in public life would have, the questions of the day being touched on only in the most general way, and no attempt being made by either party to introduce questions on which we knew each other differed. I was much impressed with Mr. McKinley, and felt him that, no matter what his politics were, he had the advantage of coming into the white house with the cleanest personal record of any president for the past twenty-five years.

"I am also sure of the fact that the present executive is an honest man, heart and soul, and that, no matter what the influences are that surround him, it will not be his fault if he does not give an honest administration according to the conclusions on his party."

INTER STATE TROUTE

Dayton at Springfield.
Fort Wayne at Toledo.
Youngstown at New Castle.
Mansfield at Wheeling.

NOTES.

First Baseman Hoyer has been released by Youngstown.

Pitcher D. H. Sayers, of the Youngstown ball club, is studying for the ministry.

Springfield has signed Captain Schriebe, late of the Richmond, Va., team. Rinehart is a fixture in center field.

Manager Rinehart has released Sage Vetters and is now playing center field himself. Sage has signed with Wheeling.

Pittsburg Leader: Artie Latham has been offered an engagement with one of Hoyt's farce comedies to create the role of a has been ball tosser. Lath assuredly is the part, but can he act it?

In Friday's game at Columbus Heather George Tebeau made a batting record that will likely stand in the Western league for a time to come. He is credited with a home run, a triple and two doubles.

Mansfield Shield: "Can't be like Eddie Lynch ought to be presided with a chest protector," Eddie has not had a protector all season, except when he could borrow one from the opposing team. Eddie owns his own mask, else he would probably have to borrow that, too. Ginger up there, management, get in the game, and furnish the boy the necessary safeguards."

Wheeling Register: "Captain Schriebe will play first base regularly for Youngstown. Managers are getting into the game all over the league and players are being released in the effort to get within the salary limit. Chief Magoffin of Detroit has ordered [illegible] eligible to be within the limit by August 1. It is now Jones's and there is not a team in the league within the limit.

Toledo Bee: "Young McNichol is hardly up to inter state league form, and will probably be released as soon as Manager Schriebe can find a successor for him. Kreger has not been released but is playing with semi professional teams in north western Ohio and may be pressed for he is for the signature of the young man for one of the home of famous players. It is more probable, however, that there will be an even change, and that a new short stop will be signed.

Warne, who has been sick for some time, but has now recovered, has been given his release.

Ellis O'Meara, the catcher arrived in the city today from Chicago. If Bonin can be signed again he will don a Fort Wayne uniform.

There will be three games at Lakeside park, beginning tomorrow. Toledo will be here. The Mud Hens are playing good ball now.

Many base ball rumors are afloat about the release of base ball players. It is given out several will walk the plank. The salary limit is always given above the mark. Who will be the lucky or unlucky ones is not yet given out.—A. A. Anderson in Sporting Life.

Sunday morning for Cleveland. Reports in the interest of "base ball." Between now and Monday several heads will fall off in the local club basket and rumors has it that other players are already selected for the slaughter.—Youngstown Vindicator.

There is a big kick by six clubs in the Inter State league over the umpiring system. Associated to league rules the receipts of the holidays are pooled and divided equally among the eight clubs. New Castle and Toledo only played one game May 31 at New Castle and as Pennsylvania celebrated Decoration day two days previously and New Castle declined to go to Toledo and play Monday, when they would have had an extensive crowd, the backers of the other teams believe that New Castle alone should suffer for their unreasonable action.

C. E. Jones, ever ready for the Pittsburg Leader at New Castle, writes as follows: "It is a remarkable fact that while Youngstown and other papers talk about Captain Cooke, of the Fort Wayne, and his scratchers of the Mansfields, and other members of other clubs as being dirty ball players, New Castle has not had an exhibition of dirty ball playing by any of those people, and indeed they were among the very best behaved men that have been on the ground this year. There has not been a kick on the umpire on the home grounds by the Fort Wayne, Mansfield or Wheeling teams, and we have had three different umpires here this season."

Toledo News: "There is only one Artie Latham and when he left league company there was none to take his place. Lath is a cheerful genius who could give adversity the laugh, even if he saw a constable walk off with all his clothes and leave him naught but his socks and a standing collar for an evening promenade on the Rialto. Lath has added a good story to his great repertoire. 'When I arrived in Columbus,' said he, 'I asked a question of some young fellow at the depot. 'I'm a stranger here,' he replied. 'I'm going to play third base for Columbus.' On the next block I met another citizen who told me the same story and I said to myself, I've got a great chance to hold on to that job with this wing of mine.' On first base at Mansfield Lath ought to prove a great card in the Inter State league."

STRIKING BAKERS.

The Trades and Labor Council Met Last Night

And Decided to Push the Fight With New Vigor. A Boom in General Business.

The Trades and Labor council held a special meeting last night to consider the disagreement Bakers strike against the Master Bakers. As a result of [illegible] more interest and greater attendance of delegates than at any meeting of the council for many months, showing that the strike is a great awakener in organized labor circles.

The call of the meeting being read that the disputes immediately presented to business and a full and free discussion was indulged in, the unanimous sentiment being that the journeymen bakers should receive the unanimous support of the organized labor.

In order to make the fight more effective the bakers, which has heretofore been run under each rules as the Journeymen Bakers' union, was taken under the jurisdiction of the Trades and Labor council, and James A. Snyder, president of the Journeymen Bakers' union, was elected general manager of the bakery with full power to arrange his working forces to the best advantage in the interest of the strikers.

The rule "to organize" committee reported that 15,000 circulars had been distributed, setting forth the causes of the strike and requesting the public to patronize the journeymen's union bakery. The chairman of the committee served the printing out of news agents to solicit the private house trade now held by the boss bakers. More agents were put out this morning.

The journeymen bakers reported that a wagon would be put on this morning to distribute the retail trade exclusively, the wholesale trade being so great that the wholesale was [illegible] no longer attend to private business.

H. J. Springer, of Indianapolis, associate editor of the Indianapolis Union, the leading labor paper of Indiana and official organ of the Indiana Federation of Trades and Labor unions and the Indianapolis Central Labor union, was a visitor at the meeting of the council last night and made an address on the bakers' strike at the request of the council which was well received. Later in the evening Mr. Springer made an address on the benefit of labor papers and gave the object of his mission to Fort Wayne, which is to boom the circulation of the paper he represents. He will be in the city several days. Mr. Springer is the husband of Belle Fenton Springer, the well known woman labor speaker.

WHERE MINES GROW.

Of late years silver production has outstripped gold. A different condition of affairs exists in the new renowned Kootenai country. While silver predominates in some localities there, yet the attention placer gold in paying quantities, and at Rossland, in the "first district, gold is king. Copper and iron are found and coal also at some places.

The recent development of this region and of that contiguous thereto in Washington, has been phenomenal. Mines of exceeding richness, from the grass roots down, have been opened all over the mountains; railroads have been built into and through the country; steamboat lines on the lakes and rivers have been increased and new ones put on, some opening up new fields.

The country is good for rich ores, the climate is mild and lasting, and the scenery grand beyond description.

Among the prominent mining camps are Rossland, Nelson, Ainsworth, Kaslo, Slocan, Salmon River, Pardner and Deer Park.

The mountains are well timbered, rendering fuel cheap, and living expenses are reasonable.

Smelters are located at several points contiguous to the mines.

The year 1896 witnessed a wonderful evangelism to the Kootenai country, and it will be eclipsed by the record of 1897.

The direct route to this land of gold, from the east, is via the Northern Pacific railway to Spokane, Wash., and Spokane Falls and Northern railway from that point north.

West of the Rossland region lies the Boundary Creek country—practically a continuation of the former—of very rich properties but as yet of meagre development. South of the Boundary line, in Washington, is the "Slocan region" country, a land also of promise.

A full description of the Kootenai region can be obtained by sending to Chas. S. Fee, Gen. Pass. Agent, N. P. Ry., St. Paul, Minn., for their new Kootenai Folder and elaborate color map. This is the best map published of the Kootenai. m20-tf

GREAT INVENTION.

Richard King Proposes to Revolutionize the Steel Industry.

He Discovers in New Method of Annealing Castings The Tooling Qualities Equal to Forgings.

Richard King, superintendent of the steel works in Belleville, Ills., has invented and had patented a new process for annealing castings, which it is claimed will revolutionize the iron and steel industry. Mr. King says, with his process, the cost can be cut in two. Iron and steel men at Belleville think his discovery the most important in the history of iron manufacture. King has applied for letters patent in all foreign countries where iron is manufactured.

RAILROAD TOOLING AND MACHINERY.

Railway Engineering Review: The impression also is that the entire traffic of a section of the country, or even of the whole country, would be aggregated in one consignment, whereas in fact nothing of the sort could be attempted. The real aims to secure the maintenance of published rates at competitive points, together with an equitable division of traffic between competing roads, and efforts like by putting it out of the power of any road in the pool to increase its earnings by secret rate cutting. The earnings of all roads between the specified competitive points are put into one fund and are divided according to the percentages of traffic allotted to each road in the pooling agreement, so that if one road by cutting rates secretly gets more than its share of traffic, it does not profit by the transaction. The pool makes it to the interest of each railroad to live up to its agreement as to rates and as to the division of traffic by making it unprofitable to do otherwise. As respects shippers, the pool benefits them by preventing discriminations."

DEATH OF A RAILWAY CONTRACTOR.

Joseph Richardson, an eccentric millionaire, died in New York yesterday. He made his fortune in railroad building, and was closely associated with the Vanderbilts and Goulds. He constructed large sections of the Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Iron Mountain and Mexican Central railroads. He came to America as a poor boy from England. Mr. Richardson's fortune has been estimated at $20,000,000. He dressed more like a tramp than a wealthy man, and lived and died in a house which was only five feet wide. This place has been called the "apple house." It was built because the surrounding property owners refused Mr. Richardson's terms for the narrow lot. He after wards refused fabulous sums for the little piece of ground on which his house stood among the tall houses on the last part of Lexington avenue. His greatest aversion was to seeing his name in print.

VERY FINE EARNINGS SHOWN.

The report of the Union Pacific, Denver and Gulf railway, operated under the management of Receiver Trumbull, for the first four months of the present year, shows a net increase in revenue of $113,855, as compared with the corresponding period of last year. The total receipts of the Gulf for January, February, March and April were $1,015,-870. The receipts for the corresponding months of last year amounted to $901,155, making a gross increase of $97,422.

Nickel Plate Engineer J. Lindsey is off duty on account of private business.

Blacksmith J. D. White, of the Pittsburg shops, is off duty on account of sickness.

Edward Taylor has returned from Philadelphia, and has accepted a position in the draughting room of the electric light works.

Engineer C. Titus is running a local freight train on the Nickel Plate, between Knox and Stony Island, vice Engineer H. Logan, who is sick.

The Michigan Peninsular Car company, at Detroit, is building some double hopper steel coal and ore cars with 100,000 pounds carrying capacity.

East-bound shipments from Chicago last week were 30,901 tons, against 49,198 for the preceding week, and 81,106 for the corresponding week of last year.

Conductor and Mrs. A. J. Zerbach have returned from Chicago, where they spent a week with friends. Mr. Zerbach is employed on the Pittsburg road.

The Illinois Central proposes to spend $750,000 at Louisville in depots and terminals, providing the city council closes some streets on which the improvements are to be made.

H. F. Schriver, formerly call ticket clerk in the Wabash passenger mechanic's office, is now holding a responsible position with the Sierra Transportation company, in New York city.

F. C. W. Meyer, of the Pittsburg planing mills, has recovered from an injury to one of his feet and has resumed work in the Pittsburg planing mills after an absence of three weeks.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. William Palmer, of Tabor street—a son. Mr. Palmer is an axle maker at the Base shops and when he went to work this morning he carried cigars for his fellow workmen.

Gus Leschell, of the Base Block smith shop, got his foot under the wheel of an iron truck yesterday afternoon and one of the members was badly crushed. He will be off duty a week and possibly longer.

The much better patronage that excursion business is receiving this year when compared with that of last year leads passenger officials to believe that the workmen classes have more money to travel on than last year.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana road will put its summer time card into effect June 20. The fast through trains between Mackinaw and Cincinnati, which were so popular with the public, will then be restored to the service.

Engine 162, just out in the Stony Island shops, will go into the passenger service between Fort Wayne and Bellevue with alternate crews as 7 days. Engineer Joseph Hiller and Fireman M. Grider and Engineer M. Mawney and Fireman C. H. Risner.

The outlook with has been examining the eyes of trainmen on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton has found quite a number deficient in eyesight and unfit for the branch of the service they are in. The company will, so far as possible, find them positions in other departments where perfect eyesight is not so important.

Passenger earnings of lines running into St. Louis in the first week in May this year did not make as favorable an exhibit as in the first week of May, 1896. The opening of May 27, 1896, led to the running into St. Louis of a large number of excursion trains, the Toledo, St. Louis and Kansas City alone carrying from that source over $3,000 more than the earnings of the first week in May this year.

Realizing the possibilities of Chicago in the way of growth, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad will elevate its track a distance of twenty miles. The work will require an immense outlay of money but it will be worth it, as fast time can then be made right into and out of the heart of the city.

Albert Fetter, an apprentice in the Wabash machine shops, today attended the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Fetter, at Dunkirk, Ohio. The deceased for a number of years conducted a boarding house at Dunkirk which was a favorite with the railway men stopping in that place, and she was well known by all of them. Her son, a switchman on the Pittsburg road, was killed in the yards in the city six years ago.

STOP IT!

Racing Indulged in at the Swimmy Park.

Public Safety Demands That the Speed Limit Law Be Enforced.

Unless the authorities put a check to reckless driving and racing on the driveway at Swimmy park, the city papers will soon be called upon to record some casualties and possibly damage suits resulting therefrom. At 7:30 o'clock last evening two young men in buggies indulged in a race, going around the track side by side at a gait entirely too lively for safety. Near the south turn one of the buggies struck a little girl, who was riding a wheel, and knocked her over. She was badly frightened, but not seriously injured. If racing by buggy or bicycle is to be permitted in the park, it should only be at an hour when the grounds are not frequented by women and children. Dozens of daily cyclists were compelled to take the cracks last evening, through fear of being run over by buggies or carriages.

HIRONS' VEGETONE.

It can be Procured at Your Druggists.

The Ohio Valley Vegetable Tonic for Consumption, Indigestion, Malaria, Liver, Kidney, Nerve Troubles, and Headaches.

For Horses, Valuable Treatment for Catarrh and Sore Throat.

For Women, Sure Antidote for Female Weakness, Irregularities, Displacements, Complete Guide, Chart and Long Treatises.

Vegetone is purely vegetable in its composition. It is a reliable and permanent cure for diseases of the liver and kidneys, constipation, chills, malarial fever, loss of appetite, and a sure and effectual cure for headache and dyspepsia.

Vegetone acts by giving tone to the stomach, strengthening the liver and kidneys, and assists these most important organs in throwing off the impurities in the blood. Every person, in the spring of the year, needs a good, safe tonic for the purification of the system after a winter of inactivity, and Vegetone will produce the desired effects, being purely vegetable and a mild, pleasant laxative, thus throwing off the debris from the stomach, producing new vigor.

CATARRH.

One of the most troublesome and dangerous diseases known to mankind, can in the large majority of cases, be permanently cured. Many who were victims to that disease have been cured, and many more are being cured. Double treatment for Catarrh does its work effectually, clearing it out of the head, driving it out of the blood, where it exists, and ever will exist, unless the germ destroying virus is eradicated from the system. Once it. For it is not only a constant discomfort, but a perpetual menace to life. Use Piso Cure for Asthma and Cough Cure as the ideal purifier, and the Specific Catarrh Cure for the nasal treatment for Catarrh, and most those troublesome and distressing symptoms will disappear. The constant dripping of the mucous into the throat, and the pain in the head will cease. The hearing, sight, smell, and taste will be restored.

HAY FEVER.

Hay Fever or Hay Asthma as it is often called, is a combination of Bronchial and Nasal affections. The immediate cause and source of irritation being of external origin, attacking individuals during the months of May, June and August. The pollen of hay, dried grasses and ripe weed comes in contact with the nasal and bronchial membranes, involving all the air passages, causing immediate irritation frequently disabling persons afflicted therewith. The great discomfort and suffering, say nothing of the loss of time caused by this terrible disease, may be avoided by using Hirons' Double Treatment, which is a sure, safe and permanent cure. Commence using the medicine at once, and put your system in condition to resist the effect of those agencies upon the mucous membrane, thereby keeping the tissues in a healthy condition.

ASTHMA.

Asthma is a contraction of the nerves connected with the lungs, and is produced by three causes. First, by sensitive area of mucous membrane. Second, an also readily sensitive nerve center, and third, by an external irritant. With all three of these factors simultaneously, an attack of Asthma is produced. The disease often arises from Heart trouble, nasal catarrh and dyspepsia. Some of the symptoms, short, quick, difficult breathing, wheezing, with spells of coughing and suffocation. Asthma is supposed by some to be incurable, but the use of a few bottles of Hirons' New Asthma and Cough Cure will prove to the contrary.

Cured of Catarrh.

The Hirons Medicine Co.:

Dear Sirs—I am twenty-eight years old, had Catarrh all my life. For years my appetite was bad. I could not sleep well. I was becoming deaf. The disease in my head became so bad that one could hear the air escape from my ear. To sum it all up, the disease was killing me by inches. I heard of your double treatment for Catarrh and began the use of the medicine at once. After using eight bottles of your remedies, I am happy to say that I have a good appetite, I sleep well, my deafness is cured, and I have gained sixteen and one-half pounds in four months. I advise every one who has Catarrh to give your medicine a trial.

EMMA CAMPBELL,
47 John Street.

Believes It Saved Her Life.

The Hirons Medicine Co.:

GENTLEMEN—I wish to tell you how thankful we are for the great good your medicine has done for our daughter, Mrs. John Metcalf. We sincerely believe that it saved her life. In November she had a bad case of lagrippe, it left her with an awful cough. Our family physician informed her husband that she was threatened with consumption. We knew not what course to pursue, until one day when Mr. Metcalf was reading an advertisement in the Weekly Sentinel, she resolved to try a bottle of your new Asthma and Cough Cure. After using the remedy for a short time she was able to sit up in bed. In two weeks she was up and around. Her cough ceased, and now she is entirely cured, and advises all who have long or throat trouble to give your medicine a trial.

Yours Truly,
SAMUEL LOGLER.
